CAMBRAI CAPTURED IN NEW ALLIED ATTACK; AMERICANS SMASH 3 DIVISIONS 3 MILES

BULGARIAN FORCES LAY DOWN ARMS TO ALLIES

Sixty-five Thousand Former Balkan Foemen Disarmed at Uskub by Virtue of Provisions of the Armistice

TEWFIK PASHA NOW IS VIZIER OF TURKEY

Former Premier Resumes Direction of Porte's Affairs Following Resignation from the Office of Talaat Pasha

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Sixty-five thousand Bulgarian soldiers have surrendered to the allies west of Uskub, in accordance with the provisions of the armistice, it was officially announced in a despatch from Salonika today.

Talaat Pasha, the Turkish premier, has resigned and has been succeeded by Tewfik Pasha, former premier and ex-ambassador at London, according to advices received here. Enver Pasha, the minister of war, also has resigned.

GENEVA, Oct. 9.—A Vienna despatch received here says the German field marshal Mackensen has arrived in old Serbia, not to aid the Bulgarians but in order to save the remnants of the Austro-German forces, which the allies are closely following toward the Danube. The Bulgarians refused to obey the German officers.

The despatch adds that the Austrians are evacuating Belgrade and that as the Serbians advance the whole Serbian population is taking its revenge. Even women with rifles are driving out their former oppressors. The women have suffered so much that it is difficult to restrain them.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A despatch from Athens dated September 26, stated that Rahmi Bey, governor of the Turkish province of Smyrna, was expected to arrive in Athens that night to discuss peace.

Deflection of Smyrna, the most important Turkish province in Asia Minor, it was believed, would completely undermine Turkish resistance in that territory, permitting the armies of General Allenby and General Marshall to move practically at will to the southern gateway of Constantinople.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 9.—The Berlin newspaper Germania, organ of the Catholic Centrist Party, says the inner cabinet of Prince Maximilian of Baden, the imperial chancellor, is composed of Freiderich von Payer, the vice-chancellor; Adolph Groeber, the clerical leader; Mathias Erzberger, one of the Centrist leaders; Philip Scheidemann, socialist, and Herr Friedberg, vice-president of the Prussian state ministry.

The Cologne Volks Zeitung says Karl Trimborn, Centrist, has been appointed minister of the interior.

ALL MOTHERS OF SOLDIERS ASKED TO MARCH

The women's Liberty loan committee of Alameda county desires the names and addresses of all of the mothers living in Oakland whose boys are now in service.

It is the intention of this committee to invite these mothers to participate in the great women's Liberty Day parade in Oakland next Saturday.

Automobiles will be furnished and the mothers' division will be given the position of honor in the parade.

All mothers riding in the parade will be given platform seats at the Marie Dressler meeting Saturday night.

Send names and addresses to women's Liberty loan committee, City Hall, Oakland.

French Cut Deep Hole In Enemy's Defense Lines

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PARIS, Oct. 9.—French troops attacking last night south and east of St. Quinetin, captured the German defenses between Harly and Neuville-St. Amand and drove past the latter town on the north, today's official statement by the War Office announces.

Attempts by the Germans to recapture the positions gained yesterday by the French north of the Arnes were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy.

LONDON, Oct. 9 (1 p. m.)—(By the Associated Press.)—German troops today are counter attacking very heavily on the Suippe river front in the Champagne and the French have not been able to make very much progress.

WITH FRENCH ARMY NORTH OF RHEIMS, Oct. 9 (By The Associated Press—Attacks on the Suippe line were resumed this morning and favorable progress is reported. The French crossed the Suippe and took Bazancourt. German artillery is violently bombarding the new French positions north of the Aisne at Berry-Au-Bac.

By JOHN DE GANDT,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, Oct. 9 (10:50 a. m.)—The allies are still smashing forward between St. Quentin and Cambrai.

The British and French are at the gates of Bohain (11 miles northeast of St. Quentin). The Americans are less than four kilometers (two and a half miles), from Busigny (three miles and a half north of Bohain).

The French, operating in liaison with the American left wing, are pressing northward into the Argonne forest, which the enemy is hastily evacuating.

Two entire divisions have been destroyed in the fighting along the Suippe river. On the right bank of the Aisne, French and Americans are progressing toward Lancon (seven miles southwest of Monthois).

Further to the northeast the Americans along the Alre river are rendering the enemy's hold on the Grand Pre Pass untenable.

Nearly 10,000 Germans were taken prisoner yesterday by the allied forces in the fighting along the various fronts of the battlefield, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris today. The Germans, he adds, are hurriedly evacuating the Argonne Forest. The battle is continuing.

General J. M. G. Malleterre, the military critic for the Temps, has written a letter from the front saying that the German armies are at the end of their strength and that the German high command is hoping to save them.

"An armistice, even with the obligation to evacuate invaded territory and Alsace-Lorraine," he continues, "would allow the German command to withdraw its armies to security to a distance sufficient to give time to reform the ranks in preparation for the moment when Berlin will denounce the allies' conditions as impossible."

HUNS PREPARE NEW RETREAT IN NORTH FRANCE

By JOHN T. PARKERSON,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY ON THE CAMBRAI-ST. QUENTIN FRONT, Oct. 9.—The Germans are preparing for another retreat in Northern France and are hurriedly building trench systems east of Rheims, about five miles eastward of the present battlefront, according to further details received by the British today.

The great British drive on the Cambrai-St. Quentin front was kept up at full speed during the night and shows no signs of letting up.

(American troops took part in the latest British assault, which was launched through the breach in the Hindenburg line south of Cambrai yesterday morning.)

The attackers are encountering practically no resistance except machine gun fire and feeble artillery shelling. Many prisoners were liberated by the British advance.

Civilians made reports to the military authorities that the Germans were preparing a new line of earthworks east of Rheims. Some of the prisoners expressed the belief that the Germans will be unable to make a decisive stand west of the Meuse river.

ONE DIES, ONE DARES DEATH, IN AIRPLANE

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE CHAMPAGNE FRONT, Oct. 9.—Crawling out on the wing of his blazing airplane, which had been set afire by German incendiary bullets, Captain Charles Trickey of Hanger, Tex., balanced the machine high in midair so that the pilot could bring the machine safely to earth.

Although the flames licked his body and inflicted mortal burns, the pilot, Sub-Lieutenant Harold E. Loud of Ascoda, Mich., stuck to his post and continued to operate the machine in its downward flight. Loud died a few hours after landing.

The machine was a two-seater observation plane and witnesses of the daring deed were unable to decide which showed the greater bravery, Trickey, by crawling out upon the wing, risking being blown to violent death, or Loud, sticking to the controls and bringing the airplane to a perfect landing while the fire seared his face and body.

Four Planes His Bag in 20 Minutes

PARIS, Oct. 9.—Lieutenant Rene Fonck has brought down four German aeroplanes within twenty minutes on the same day. Fonck now is credited with seventy official victories and has actually brought down 109 German machines.

PEACE PUT SQUARELY UP TO HUNS BY WILSON

President's Reply Is Declared to Place Burden of Further War Upon Germany and the Junker Clique in Control

COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL CLAUSE IS STIFF JOLT

Way Is Cleared for America to Make Fitting Answer When It Becomes Known That Enemy Is Insincere

By CARL D. GROAT,
United Press Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 9.—Peace is up to Germany, more squarely than it ever was before, as a result of President Wilson's inquiry to Prince Maximilian, testing Teuton sincerity.

Persons close to President Wilson called his maneuver adroit, placing the burden for continued war upon Germany. On the other hand many in the capital, including Senator Lodge, upper house Republican leader, complained that the inquiry left the door open and did not meet their expectations.

It became known that the President's declaration for evacuation of occupied territories before an armistice did not contemplate the evacuation of Alsace. Instead, it meant evacuation of invaded territories and the intention, as shown by the President's fourteen peace terms, to leave the righting of the wrong done France to determination in the final peace conference.

It was said by a high authority that this "righting" was open to the interpretation of return of Alsace to France.

During the afternoon, President Wilson visited Secretary of State Lansing and remained in conference with him and with Chief of Staff March for a considerable time.

The significance of the military man's presence there was not entirely clear, but speculation was that the President was considering the military aspects of the future should Germany decline a general evacuation.

TEUTON LEADERS MUST SHOW REAL COLORS.

The White House viewpoint on the Wilson query was elucidated thus:

The inquiry does not bind President Wilson to any special course. It is distinctly an inquiry, not a reply to Prince Max's peace offers; and it will clear a way for the President to make a fitting reply as soon as he knows for certain whether Germany wants peace on his terms or is merely making an insincere peace move.

Particular attention was called to the fact that among the President's peace terms are complete freeing of Russia, Belgium, occupied France and reparation of the wrongs of Alsace-Lorraine. Also there is a distinct emphasis upon the fact that self-determination shall be the governing factor in territorial alignments.

The President felt that a curt answer would have served as ammunition to the Teuton war lords to stimulate the peoples of Germany and Austria to fresh efforts under the guise of self-defense. As the matter now stands, Germany knows clearly that complete evacuation of occupied territory must be the preliminary to any peace move. The German leaders are told they must show their true colors, not alone to the world, but to their own people.

The first reaction, in general here, was that of disappointment that the President had asked questions of Germany, instead of making a flat-footed statement of "unconditional surrender," or something equally strong. But overnight consideration of the message turned many men's views, and there was an inclination today among those who at first complained, to share the administration belief that Germany now either must make peace on strictly American terms or find herself in a diplo-

Moslem Surrender at Hand as Wilson's Note Finds Favorable Comment Abroad; Just What We Expected.—Paris

LONDON, Oct. 9, 4:45 p. m.—The surrender of Turkey to the allies is possible within 48 hours, said a despatch to the Evening Standard this afternoon.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 9.—Referring to an extraordinary session of the Dutch cabinet which has been held, the Handelsblad says it is very persistently rumored that the government is considering offering its service to both the belligerent groups with a view to their reaching an agreement. No confirmation of this was obtainable at the Dutch foreign office.

ROME, Oct. 9.—Commenting upon the German proposal for an armistice, the Corriere D'Italia, the semi-official Vatican organ, says:

"An unconditional acceptance of the offer made by the central empires is out of the question unless invaded territories are first evacuated as a guarantee for the enemy's good intentions."

PARIS, Oct. 9.—President Wilson's reply to the German armistice proposal became known here today through extra editions issued at noon.

The first opinions noted were that the reply was "just as was expected."

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 9.—The text of President Wilson's answer to the latest German peace overtures became public in the American army today.

While comment was forbidden in such units as the news reached, it created apparent gratification that no armistice had been granted in the present military situation.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—President Wilson's reply to the German chancellor is hailed here as a keen diplomatic stroke. The "man in the street" generally believes that the Hohenzollerns have been pushed into a corner where they will have to accept President Wilson's fourteen terms and evacuate all occupied territory. If they do not do that they will expose their hypocrisy to their own people as well as the world and thereby hasten the inevitable revolution.

The question as to whether the German chancellor is speaking for the people or the war lords clinches this, it is held here.

Even the British labor pacifists agree with President Wilson that all occupied territory must be evacuated before an armistice is declared.

President Wilson's reply reached London too late for comment in the editorial columns of the morning papers, but it aroused the deepest interest everywhere.

Big Metal Holdings Change Hands in Deal

WALLACE, Idaho, Oct. 9.—Completion of arrangements whereby the American Metals Company has turned back into the treasury of the Consolidated Interstate-Callahan Mining Company its entire holdings of the stock of the concern, 145,097 shares, in consideration of the cancellation of its smelter contract with the Callahan company, was announced today by James F. Callahan, director of the latter company.

The mining company also has purchased from the officers and directors of the Metals Company their individual holdings of Callahan stock, 21,590 shares, at $9 a share, he announced.

State Official Is To Take Bride

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—Thomas J. Milleken of Sacramento, chief deputy state auditor, obtained a marriage license here today to marry Mrs. Lida Parsons O'Brien, also of Sacramento. Milleken gave his age as 50 and Mrs. O'Brien's as 38.

PARIS, Oct. 9.—The Echo De Paris stated today that the Germans are evacuating the Argonne forest.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 9.—General Pershing's men are driving ahead everywhere. The roads are heavy as a result of continued rains, but this fails to stop the doughboys. The attack in the Argonne region is continuing. The Americas have battled their way west of Cornay to a point where they joined up with the French coming from the south.

Three German divisions which have been facing the Americans have been withdrawn exhausted.

WITH THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY, Oct. 9.—French and American troops, in their attack east of the Meuse, have advanced six kilometers (more than three miles and a half) in some places.

3000 PRISONERS ARE TAKEN ON TUESDAY
BY UNITED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Capture of Cornay, east of Rheims, by the Americans, liberation of four other villages and a bag of 3000 prisoners Tuesday was reported by General Pershing today.

The communique follows:

"We captured Cornay and against stubborn fighting continued our advance in the Argonne forest. East of the Meuse French and American troops, serving with the First army, made a brilliant attack in the vicinity of the Bois Des Caures-D'Haumont. The villages of Consenvoye, Brabant, Haumont and Beaumont have been occupied and the enemy has been driven well beyond them.

"On both banks of the Meuse our own troops and the French are now pushing the enemy from the scene of the desperate struggle for Verdun. The number of prisoners taken as the result of the day's operations exceeded 3000. Of these, over 1500 were taken by French units east of the Meuse. This brings the total number captured by this command in the last few days to over 4000. The French also captured 18 mortars of 30 caliber and other material."

SECOND U. S. DIVISION BORE BRUNT OF BATTLE
BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE, Oct. 9.—It is now permissible to state that it was the Second American division which bore the brunt of the recent hard fighting in the Champagne. This division took St. Etienne and the positions leading to that town and thus created the slight salient now projecting into the German line.

The Second American division consists of the Fifth and Sixth Regiments of Marines, the Ninth and Twenty-third Infantry and the Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Nineteenth Regiments of Artillery.

WITH THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY, Oct. 9.—The Germans were reported today to be concentrating heavily behind Romagne, which forms the exact center of the enemy front between the Meuse and the Argonne massif.

Their artillery is extremely dense there and their machine guns are believed only a few yards apart. At the same time a great movement of Germany artillery is reported under way toward the rear, indicating that this concentration may be preparation for a big rear-guard action, covering a further withdrawal.

FOUR VILLAGES TAKEN BY PERSHING'S FIGHTERS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 9.—General Pershing's first American army delivered a new attack east of the Meuse river Tuesday, capturing four villages and a fortified farm. The Germans were pushed back from the old line from which they began their big offensive against Verdun in 1916. The Americans are now driving ahead on both sides of the Meuse.

The Americans swarmed across the Meuse and quickly captured the village of Consenvoye.

Four miles north of Consenvoye the Americans seized Molleville farm, taking an entire battalion along with its commander and fifteen mortars.

Farther to the east Americans captured Brabant, Haumont and Beaumont, driving the enemy back. Only feeble resistance was encountered by General Pershing's men. While the Americans were across the river they received magnificent support from the artillery. The reply of the German artillery was very weak.

West of the river the Americans made excellent progress, capturing Cernay and threatening the Germans still holding out in the northern part of the Argonne forest.

GERMANS DAM RIVER TO FLOOD LOWLANDS

The Americans pressed westward through heavy entanglements west of Fleville during the attack. The Germans were reported to be damming the Aire river near Marcq in order to flood the lowlands.

The new American advance was carried out in the face of heavy German counter attacks.

The Germans had succeeded in taking Hill No. 223, but were driven out by the Americans in a brilliant counter thrust.

During the morning the Germans shelled the American Red Cross station at Morcourt.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE CHAMPAGNE FRONT, Oct. 9.—The Americans have advanced between two and three miles on the Champagne front, capturing 400 prisoners. Attacks were delivered both east and west of St. Etienne, which is now firmly in Franco-American hands.

WITH THE ANGLO-AMERICAN ARMIES NEAR ST. QUENTIN, Oct. 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—Heavy fighting continued throughout the night on the Cambrai-St. Quentin front and the British and Americans continued their progress of Tuesday under a heavy protective fire from the British artillery. The defeated enemy was almost smothered under the great deluge of steel and explosives.

EIGHT THOUSAND PRISONERS FALL TO HAIG'S LEGIONS IN GREAT ADVANCE IN PICARDY

Anglo-American Attack Resumed Today Both Ways From Stronghold With Rapid Progress Made by the Third and Fourth Armies

DEEP WEDGE IS DRIVEN AT DOUAI

LONDON, Oct. 9, 5:35 p. m.—The Americans and British troops who are driving the Germans back between St. Quentin and Cambrai have captured Buzigny and are reported to have reached Bohain, it was learned late this afternoon.

(These places are twelve miles east of the Cambrai-St. Quentin line.)

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The city of Cambrai has been captured by the British. Here and elsewhere 8000 prisoners were taken in yesterday's fighting.

Field Marshal Haig announced the capture of this long-resisting German stronghold in his official statement today.

The Anglo-American attack was resumed this morning on the entire front south of Cambrai. Field Marshal Haig reported rapid progress was being made.

Last night additional progress was made east of Sequehart and toward Bohain and Maretz.

South of Cambrai the British captured Forenville and reached the western outskirts of Malincourt.

The attack this morning was on the front of the third and fourth armies and began at 5:20 o'clock.

Cambrai was one of the most important German positions in Northern France and was one of the bastions upon which the northern end of the Hindenburg line rested. It derives great strategic importance from the number of highways and railways which converge there. The city is on the Scheldt canal and lies 21 miles west of the Belgian frontier. It is 21 miles southeast of Arras and 32 miles from the great German base of Lille.

The British almost entered it in the autumn of last year when General Byng made a surprise attack, which rolled the Germans back into the suburbs. This assault began on November 20, 1917, and in the first dash the British went ahead six miles. The city was under fire of the British guns, but the Germans rallied in their turn and made a surprise attack which pressed back the British. In this fighting American engineers distinguished themselves.

HELD BY ENEMY SINCE FALL OF 1914.

Cambrai was in the path of Von Kluck's hordes that rolled through Northern France in the fall of 1914 and has been held by the Germans ever since. In the spring of 1917, when the Germans made their famous retreat, Cambrai was established as one of the main supporting positions of the Hindenburg line, being maintained as a base also. In addition to Cambrai, other anchor points on this line were Lille, Lens, Douai, St. Quentin and Laon.

Cambrai did not come within the fighting zone proper until the German retreat from the Arras and Somme fronts, when they evacuated all the soil around Bapaume and Peronne and retired, devastating the country behind them.

Strong rear guards were left behind in this retreat, and it was nearly a month after the retrograde movement commenced before the British entered Peronne. Before the war Cambrai was a prosperous industrial city, with numerous textile mills and had a population of upwards of 25,000, but today it is a heap of ruins.

On Sunday (September 29) British troops fought their way into the suburbs and on the following Tuesday the city was reported in flames, with the Germans retiring from it.

DEEP WEDGE IN FOE'S POSITION.
BY UNITED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The combined attack of American, British and French forces between St. Quentin and Cambrai already has driven a deep wedge into the German positions, menacing the enemy's hold in the Douai region to the north, as well as the Laon region to the south.

Average progress of three miles on a front of more than 20 miles was reported in Field Marshal Haig's night communique, which stated that the fight was continuing. The villages of Brancourt, Premont, Servanvillers, Niergenes, Rouvroy and Fontaine-Uterte have been captured with 1000 prisoners.

Farther to the north the British advanced on a front of about five miles from the Scarpe northward, occupying Neuvireuil and Fresnes-Les-Montauban.

LARGE POLE PLANT WILL COME HERE

Announcement was made today by C. H. Johnson, Pacific coast manager of the National Pole Company, of its intention to bring its main distributing plant to Oakland following the completion of a ten-year lease of five acres of the Parr-McCormick land adjoining the seven-acre tract recently leased by the American Magnesite Company for a $300,000 expenditure to be made within the next six months. The National Pole Company is closely affiliated with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and its subsidiary company, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Western Union Telegraph Company, with head offices in Chicago. It supplies all of the telephone and telegraph poles used by these corporations, and the new Oakland plant will handle approximately 30,000 poles a month and supply all the district west of the Rocky mountains. Attorney-General U. S. Webb represented the eastern interests, Fred Parr and the law firm of McCutchen, Olney and Willard representing the Parr-McCormick Company.

ANOTHER BIG LEASE.

It is very probable that another important lease involving the immediate expenditure of approximately $1,000,000 by an eastern corporation whose products are a household word, on another portion of the Parr-McCormick property will shortly be announced. Negotiations are under way, it is known, but the interested parties refused to discuss the matter this morning.

The approval of the Federal Railroad Administration to the building of 10,000 feet of spur track from the lines of the Southern Pacific was given yesterday and this construction will open all of the Parr-McCormick lease-holds and permit a rapid consumption of the present plan for warehouse terminals, coal bunkers, shipyards, marine railway, etc., which have the approval of the city administration.

The present plan for warehouse facilities and wharves will be expanded, another unit of wharves built at the point where the pole bunkers are now contemplated on parcel one with the dredging to a mean low tide depth of 35 feet to permit the berthing of the largest trans-oceanic freighters, was also indicated.

PRO-GERMAN BOTTLE NOTE HINTS SUICIDE

Mystery which may hide the last despairing words of a pro-German driven to suicide by the continued victories of the allies over his glorified war lord, surrounds the origin of a barnacle-covered bottle containing a note, floating in Lake Merritt. The message found in the bottle, scribbled on a piece of paper, follows:

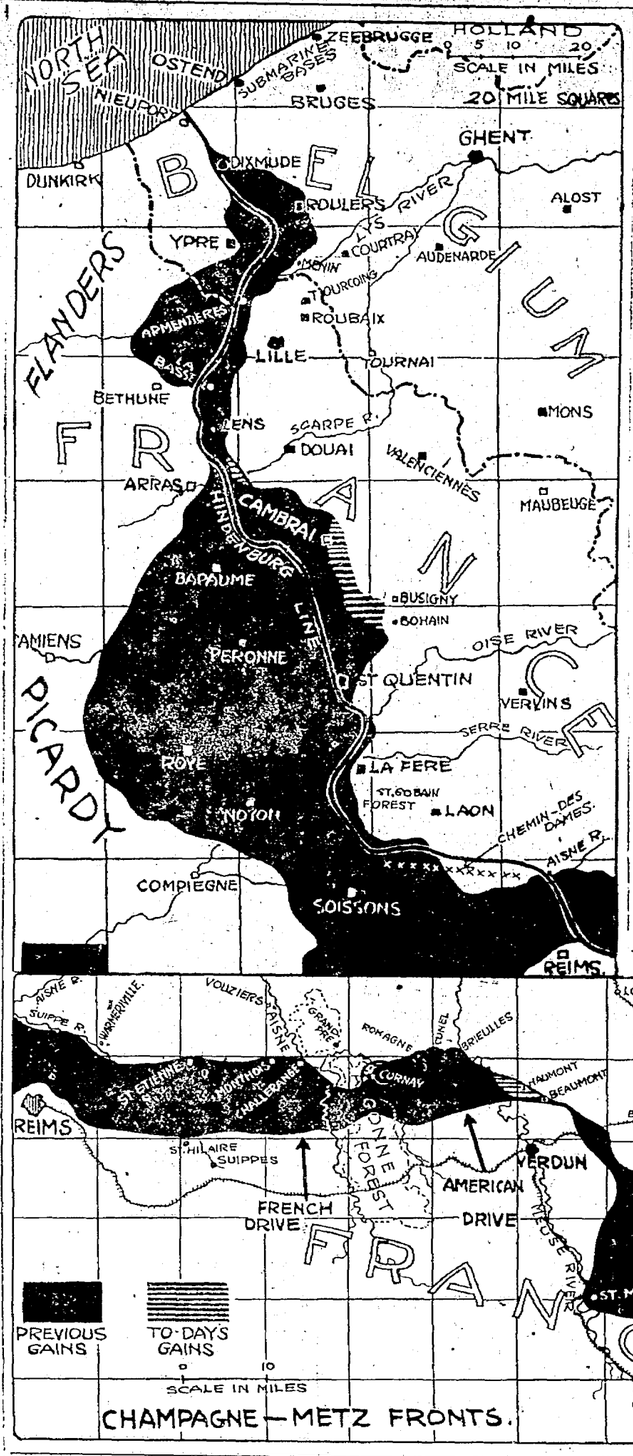
"Good Bye, World. Deuchland Elber Alles. Madame H. Germany for all."

The script and the misspelling of the German words "Deutschland" and "Uber," indicated that the note was either from some ignorant German or might be an attempt at a practical joke.

The bottle was found by little 6-year-old Lawrence Severy, son of Mrs. F. M. Severy, 1514 Jackson street, while he was playing on the shore of Lake Merritt.

HELPER IS INJURED.

Earl Sheldon, a drillers' helper, living at 1966 Telegraph avenue, was treated at the Emergency hospital for cuts and bruises sustained at 724 o'clock this morning, when a west-bound Seventh street local struck an automobile in which he was riding.



38 INFLUENZA CASES; NEW PRECAUTIONS

With thirty-eight cases of Spanish influenza under quarantine in the city of Oakland, and an order issued to all saloons, soda fountains and places in which drinks of any kind are served, to wash glasses with a five per cent solution of lye, Oakland health authorities are preparing to take action to check the spread of the disease, and may issue drastic orders within 24 hours.

A conference of the most prominent physicians in Oakland has been called by Dr. Kirby Smith, city health officer, to be held late this afternoon. The situation will be gone over in detail, and plans will be formulated for a campaign to halt the spread of Spanish influenza. Dr. Smith would not hazard an opinion as to how drastic the steps to be recommended will be, but stated that every necessary precaution would be taken to meet the emergency.

There were 21 cases of Spanish influenza yesterday, and today the number had risen to 38, making 17 new cases reported, according to Dr. F. F. Jackson, head of the department of public health and safety. Dr. Jackson stated that he would co-operate with Dr. Smith, the health officer, and that the needs of the situation would be met on the basis of expert advice from the physicians most conversant with the facts.

Two new cases were reported in Berkeley, besides three at the University of California infirmary. A dozen or more students who have colds are being watched.

In San Francisco 37 more cases have developed within the last 24 hours. The Presidio has been placed under quarantine and none will be permitted to leave the reservation unless on business of great importance.

There are 60 cases at Stanford University and 25 at Palo Alto.

Peace Now Is Up to Germany
President's Meaning Held Clear

WILSON GIVES GERMANY DECIDEDLY STIFF JOLT.

The feeling, on the whole, was that President Wilson had shown absolutely no signs of weakness, but on the contrary had given Germany a decidedly stiff jolt, when he demanded that there be complete withdrawal from occupied territories before any peace could be considered.

As seen in government quarters the inquiry does these things:

FIRST—Lays the groundwork for a rejection of Germany's overtures later if Germany fails to meet the President's terms frankly and squarely.

SECOND—Makes Germany accept the President's terms as a whole in good faith and withdraw her armies from allied soil, or convicts the war lords of insincerity before their own people and before the world.

THIRD—Gives advance notice that the allies and America will fight on until occupied territory is cleared and until Germany is ready to accept plain justice as laid down by the President's various speeches.

FOURTH—Lays the foundations for a new pronunciamento to Germany, that if Max is not a representative of the German masses, as he assuredly is not, no diplomatic peace dealings can be had with him.

FIFTH—Calls sharply to the attention of the German people that her leaders are doubted; opens the way to them to overthrow these leaders, if, after preaching peace, they fail to meet the requirements of honesty and sincerity as the Wilson query requires.

INQUIRY BETTER THAN BLUSTERING DEMAND.

The general thought here was that the inquiry was even more effective than a curt or blustering demand for unconditional surrender would have been.

It meets the allied requirements that there be rejection of any insincere proposals while it leaves the door open to acceptance of a genuine proposal squaring with allied-American demands.

This feature of the inquiry is distinctly a concession to allied opinion.

Diplomats here were frankly fearful that a curt demand for surrender would have bolstered up German morale, encouraging the Teutons to fight the harder under the plea that they were battling for their existence. The allied consultations developed the idea that a short, sharp reply would cause unrest or suspicion among the labor and Lansdowne elements abroad. Such an answer, it was felt, would not meet the approval of groups who perhaps might fail to see the evident insincerity of the German maneuver.

At the same time it was believed that the President had given a "real punch" to his remarks by making the demand for evacuation as a peace preliminary. This goes further than any demand to date and even those who criticized the form, held that the substance of that paragraph showed clearly that there is no disposition to talk peace except on our own terms.

Entente diplomats were plainly relieved at the method the President pursued. They designated this action as a notice to Germany that she must come around to the American-allied viewpoint or be punished into defeat by the onward-pressing United States-allied armies.

AUSTRIA PREMIER'S VIEW.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

VIENNA (Via Basel), Oct. 9.—In opening the Austrian Chamber of Deputies Baron von Hussarek, the Austrian premier announced officially that a peace note had been sent to President Wilson and said:

"In a measure the note accepts the basis for negotiations indicated by an important personality in the adverse camp. It is evidence that the central powers are disposed to adopt a course leading to a pacific end.

"But I cannot deny that this basis requires in many details a modification of the political ideas which thus far have directed public opinion. Nevertheless, I hope this assembly will approve of the new step leading to an epoch in which the great peoples of the world will decide their own future.

"A response not taking into account our disposition would show a will to destroy us and would meet from the central powers inflexible resolution."

$40,000,000 TERMINAL TO BE FREE PORT

Plans for a $40,000,000 terminal on Bay Farm Island, to be a system of wharves, docks and railroad spurs in which the essential features of the Bush terminals, the famous free port of Hamburg, and other noted harbors are to be embodied, are now in the hands of officials at Washington. This was learned today with the news that Captain R. M. Henningsen, the man who designed the Albers Mills, has been called to Washington by the government.

The land involved in the plan is owned by the Alameda City Land Company, in which Henningsen, W. R. Scott and several prominent capitalists are interested. It is proposed that the government aid in the construction of the great terminal, to be used as a free port under the after-war Merchant Marine plan. The fact that, under recent leases, the western waterfront cannot be used for a free port, say the engineers who perfected the plan, makes the Alameda site the only possible one for the proposed development.

The land to be used is all privately owned and not subject to any city tolls or dockage assessments. Railroad connections would be made at the East Oakland end, through a canal crossing, and only a small amount of channel dredging would be needed, say the engineers.

Make Your Stomach Your Best Friend

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Digest the Food, Prevent Sourness and Make You Feel Fine All Over.

If you feel any distress after eating take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. You will then have a good, steady friend in your stomach. For no matter what you eat there will be no gas, no sour risings, no lump in your throat, no biliousness, no dark, brown taste in the morning. And should you now be troubled, eat a tablet as soon as possible and relief will come promptly. These tablets correct at once the faults of a weak or overworked stomach, they do the work while the stomach rests and recovers itself. Particularly effective are they for banqueters and those whose environment brings them in contact with the rich food most apt to cause stomach derangement. Relief in these cases always brings the glad smile. Get a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, 50 cents, in any drug store. Be good to your stomach.—Advertisement.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Milk Toast Diet Too Much for Her

"I doctored for years with only temporary relief. My liver was very bad; after eating I would always have such a fullness in my stomach and my heart would palpitate. I could not eat milk toast without distressing me. Since taking a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, more than a year ago, I can eat anything my appetite desires." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Osgoods' Dept. Drug Stores and druggists everywhere. — Advertisement.

YOUR DUTY TO BE ATTRACTIVE

Have Pretty Dark Hair

"La Creole" Hair Dressing is the original hair color restorer, and not a dye. Applying to your hair and scalp revives the color glands of nature, and restores your hair to a beautiful dark shade or to its natural color. It is the only hair color restorer that will gradually darken all your gray or faded hair in this way. No matter how gray, prematurely gray, faded or lusterless your hair might be, "La Creole" Hair Dressing will make it beautifully dark, soft and lustrous. "La Creole" Hair Dressing will not stain the scalp, wash or rub off, and is easily applied by simply combing or brushing through the hair. Don't be misled into buying some cheap preparation.

USE
"LA CREOLE" HAIR DRESSING
for gray or faded hair and retain the appearance of youth. Also used by gentlemen to impart an even dark color to their gray hair, beard or mustache.—For sale by The Owl Drug Company's Stores and all good drug stores everywhere. Mail orders from out-of-town customers filled promptly upon receipt of regular price—$1.20. "La Creole" Hair Dressing is sold on a money-back guarantee.—Advertisement.

Parsowith Ladies' Tailor and Furrier is now located above the Owl Drug Store at 14th and Washington streets with a fine selection of Alaskan Furs at summer prices. This affords the opportunity of procuring a gift of great value at nominal price. At the same time inspect the woolen fabrics for suits which you will find of the old stock entirely of wool and moderately priced.

Stephens Demands Kaiser's Six Sons

FRESNO, Oct. 9.—Addressing the leaders of the Liberty bond campaign at a luncheon given here in his honor, Governor William D. Stephens aroused a tremendous patriotic demonstration by his attitude toward the German peace proposal.

"Do not be deceived by any German peace offensive," said the governor. "This war must not end and shall not end until Germany unconditionally surrenders and until the kaiser and his six sons march humbly across No Man's Land, and, that it may once again become Some Man's Land, deliver their swords and their persons to the keeping and the mercy of the allies. We should not talk of peace until Germany is conquered, and then make sure that the price paid by Germany is coined in the mint of justice."

Billiards, Bonds and Glasses, All Fads of the Thespians

Proud Actor - Uncle Waits Return of Hero

Twice Stage Manager Casey's little telephone bell rang last night, over at the Orpheum, and almost "broke up" the act of Flanagan and Edwards, the Road Show stars, who are making them laugh there with a picture of "The Morning After the Night Before," as they present it. For every time it happened Neely Edwards would stop and listen—forgetting, almost, that he had people to make laugh.

Here's the secret, as gathered by the busy TRIBUNE interviewer who happened to be behind the scenes at the time. He has a nephew in the war—Gerald Limbach, son of G. A. Limbach of the Houts & Ramage Company here, who's on his way home after being wounded. The youngster is expected in Oakland any day, and proud uncle wants to see him before he leaves on the circuit. Papa was jumping the same way at home every time the bell rung.

The Orpheum star's nephew went over the top three times with an Oakland contingent before he was wounded. He is a graduate of the Oakland High School. His uncle hasn't seen him since he was a baby.

BILLIARDS HATH CHARMS.

It's all billiards and Liberty Loan behind the scenes at the Orpheum this week—Florrie Millership is running a Liberty Loan campaign of her own among the Thespians, and in the meantime Albert Vertchamp, the violin virtuoso, has organized a billiard tournament for thrift stamp prizes.

Vertchamp is one of the most ardent billiard players in the world—and can run a beautiful string up, too. He learned it while studying the violin in Poland, before the war, when he went there to complete his musical education under the teacher that graduated Jan Kubelik. In Poland everybody used to play billiards at the artists' colony, he says, and now the habit has stuck with him. Besides, he says, practice with a cue is a great thing for a violinist's strength of arm. The movement of a skilled bowman is almost the same as that of the skilled billiardist.

Wherefore, George Fisher and John Hawley are buying thrift stamps for their musical friend. They engaged to play a few games with him last night, and the few games developed into losses—for the two Orpheum laugh-makers.

HERE'S RIVALRY.

By the way, Florrie Millership and the "Creole Fashion Plate" have on a keen rivalry in the matter of gowns. Every time Miss Millership designs a new creation her Creole friend gets busy with a rival frock, and the result is being watched with no little interest by the Orpheum family this week. Every night sees daring new gowns that make one gasp, as each seeks to outshine the other. It's funny, too, because—but then that's a secret.

WHO FIGHT? THEY?

Those who read stories in popular magazines of the "fights" actors and actresses indulge in behind the scenes would have a dull time of it looking for anything like that this week. The present week's bill is just like one big family. They stand in the wings and "boost" each others' acts, and they play billiards, design gowns and solicit Liberty Loan subscriptions. Of one couple they say: "They seem more like friends than if they were married!"

There's not a "story" in them—unless it be in the fact that they're exceptions to the usual bills that the smart magazine writers tell about—and the managers have yet to see.

OH! NOT TOO THICK!

"The art of make-up" that they try to teach in dramatic schools isn't an art at all—at least, not according to Joyce Alberte, the beautiful pianiste who accompanies Albert Vertchamp, violinist, at the Orpheum this week. Quite the contrary—it's not what you put on, but what you don't put on, that gets the effect before the footlights, says Miss Alberte.

"Most girls make up too heavily," she says. "I had to experiment for a long time to learn just where to stop. I usually make up and then take it off again—because you simply can't have too little greasepaint on—just enough to counteract the spotlight—and more looks artificial." Miss Alberte is a talented artist as well as a pianiste.

GLASSES SOARE "JOHNNIES."

Rosalie Mellette, beautiful dancer and one of the "Tantalizing-toed" Mellette Sisters, at the Orpheum this week, wears a great pair of tortoise-shell rimmed glasses on the street—look just like owl's eyes.

"Oh, no, my eyes are not bad—it's just a habit," explains the star. "You see, in New York the stage door johnnies used to bother us—and I got these. They never bothered me again while I had 'em on—and I sort of got into the habit of them."

LODGE CRITICISES REPLY ON PEACE

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—While most Congressional leaders last night approved President Wilson's note of inquiry to Germany and especially his refusal to accept any proposal for an armistice until the enemy evacuates occupied territory, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader and senior minority member of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, and Representative Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign committee, expressed keen disappointment in the course taken by the President.

"I am keenly disappointed," said Senator Lodge, "that the President should at this stage enter into a discussion with the imperial German government, as he has done in the note signed by Lansing. In his first and second paragraphs he asks for further information and invites further discussion. It is true that in the last paragraph he inquires whether Prince Maximilian of Baden represents merely the constituted authorities of the German empire.

CHOSEN BY WILHELM.

"Prince Maximilian is the Chancellor of the German empire, appointed by the kaiser. I do not understand what he can possibly represent except the constituted authorities, which represent the German empire and the German people unless a revolution has occurred of which the world has as yet no knowledge.

"Personally I adhere to the statement of the President made in his speech of September 27, in which he said:

"'We are all agreed that there can be no peace obtained by any kind of bargain or compromise with the government of the central empires, because we have dealt with them already and have seen them deal with other governments that were parties to this struggle, at Brest-Liovsk and Bucharest.

"The President answering the suggestion by the imperial German government of an armistice, says the good faith of this proposal rests on the consent of the central powers to withdraw their armies from invaded territory. Are they to withdraw unattacked from Belgium and Northern France, burning and robbing and destroying as they go to positions behind the Rhine where they will have time and opportunity to refresh their armies and replenish their munitions? Alsace and Lorraine are not invaded territory.

PAINFUL ANXIETY.

"I cannot but feel a painful anxiety as to what effect this note will have upon the allies, upon our armies, upon our soldiers who are fighting and dying and conquering in order to 'crush the thing' with which the President is opening a discussion."

In expressing his disappointment, Representative Fess said the President had taken the step "against which the country has been warned."

"The way has been opened," said Fess, "for Germany to save herself by withdrawing her armies within her own border by agreement rather than by retreat under fire, as she has been forced to do the past few weeks.

"Peace discussions with Germany before our armies are on her soil will not insure the future. I had hoped that no step would be taken to transfer the discussion from the field to the table. I do not believe the soldiers or the country will ever be satisfied with anything short of a conclusive peace, which can only be assured by such chastisement of Germany as will make a like sacrifice in the future impossible."

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of the Foreign Relations committee, declared the President's course will compel a peace on his terms.

"It is evident," said Senator Hitchcock, "the President intends to say that Germany must accept the terms he has laid down. I think the note will elicit the exact issue between the countries."

Senator Borah of Idaho, Republican, said the note "is well designed to clarify a very involved situation."

Brother Leo to Talk For Liberty Bonds

Brother Leo of St. Mary's College will be the speaker of the evening at a patriotic rally in the interests of the Fourth Liberty Loan, to be held at Palm Court Hall, Forty-first street and Piedmont avenue, Sunday evening, under the auspices of St. Leo's parish. Brother Leo is well known both in Oakland and San Francisco as an orator. A musical program will be rendered by talent from St. Mary's College and St. Leo's Parish. Hubert J. Quinn is to be chairman of the evening.

CALIFORNIA IN HIGH RANK AS BANK STATE

Four hundred and thirty state banks, with 148 branch offices in operation in the fiscal year that ended with the close of business June 29, last, places California fifth in the United States in the aggregate of the resources of banks under state control. The four states ahead of California are New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Illinois.

The foregoing is only a small part of the information concerning the banks of the state set forth in the annual report of State Superintendent of Banks W. R. Williams. This is the ninth report that Williams has issued and is more comprehensive than any of the others, containing as it does more than 11,000 words and dealing with every conceivable phase of the banking business under state control.

Evidence of the prosperity of the banks is given by Williams in the figures showing that the total business of all the banks for the fiscal year ending June 29 was $98,740,653.36 in excess of the business of the previous year. The total resources for the fiscal year of 1918 were $1,021,510,021.86. In every line of banking business there was an increase shown, with the exception of "due from banks," which shows a decrease of $6,454,720.23.

During the fiscal year four new banks were licensed, twenty-seven new branch offices were installed and four national banks were purchased by state banks. Four banks added each a savings department, one a commercial department and two a trust department. Two banks voluntarily retired and two banks suspended each a branch office. Two departmental banks closed their commercial departments. Sixteen banks sold their assets and transferred their deposit liability to other going institutions in the state system. Two banks became extinct by consolidation. One bank was converted into a national bank. Thirty-eight banks increased their capital and two decreased their capital. Seven banks changed their names, three of them for patriotic reasons. There were at the close of the fiscal year 1,694,778 depositors in state banks, a gain of 109,838 depositors for the year. State banks reported an aggregate of $122,335.84 and national banks a total of $20,533.70, or a combined sum of $142,869.54 in unclaimed deposits of more than twenty years' standing and subject to escheat.

Aside from things strictly of a banking nature the report deals with the great resources of the state, suggests a working scheme for bringing the state banks into the federal system and urges the necessity of establishing trade banks to care for the new avenues for commerce created by the war. A group of amendments to the present state banking law is suggested to provide for these conditions.

Dandruffy Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

RELIEVED FROM ITCHING BURNING ECZEMA

Gives Resinol the Whole Credit

Aug. 15.—"For some time I suffered frightfully from eczema on my legs. From my knees down they were covered with scales, and itched and burned as though hot coals were resting on them. I would scratch until the blood came, and was unable to sleep at night. Nothing that I tried helped me, until a druggist recommended Resinol Ointment. After applying it once, I enjoyed the first good night's sleep I had had in weeks. Now I am sound and well after using a little over one jar of Resinol Ointment, to which I give the whole credit." (Signed) F. B. Price, 414 Downey St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Rheumatism

The Way to Get Rid of It Is to Remove the Cause.

The fact that rheumatism depends on an excess of uric acid in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain, is well established. This excess is due to some defect in the processes of digestion and absorption, and to torpidity or sluggishness of liver, kidneys and skin.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism because it acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and builds up the whole system.

Get rid of rheumatic pains and aches by taking this good medicine.—Advertisement

Calomel Users! Listen To Me! I Guarantee Dodson's Liver Tone

Your druggist gives back your money if it doesn't liven your liver and bowels and straighten you up without making you sick.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile, crashes into it breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get for a few cents a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodsons Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Advertisement.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

A Small Bottle of 'Danderine' Makes Hair Thick, Glossy and Wavy

Removes All Dandruff, Stops Itching Scalp and Falling Hair

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now — It costs but a few cents — all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and luster, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.—Advertisement.

OPEN HOUSES TO CHILDREN, WOMEN'S PLEA

By EDNA B. KINARD.

This is the text of the resolution adopted by the executive board of Oakland women's committee, Councils of National and State Defense, relative to the protection of families with children who are being kept out of dwellings and apartment houses by landlords taking advantage of the present abnormal demand for homes:

Every munitions and shipbuilding center must find an increasing supply of homes for married men and citizens must therefore be impressed with the importance of opening their houses to families with children, putting the appeal on both moral and patriotic grounds.

As the unmarried workmen are increasingly taken away by the draft, older men with families must replace them. These men should not be asked to separate from their families. It is bad for the family, bad for them and bad for the plant or shipyard in which they work.

Therefore, the Oakland women's committee, Councils of National and State Defense, appeals on both moral and patriotic grounds to householders and landlords to set aside their objections to renting to families with children. We also urge upon parents a more careful supervision of their children as regards other people's property.

By ETHEL MOORE, Chairman.

The defense body is practically the voice of the women of Oakland. It is representative of the clubs, fraternal organizations, church, civic and active societies of every kind. It is Oakland womanhood appealing on the high grounds of morality and patriotism to property holders to realize how great is the balance of power which they hold and what its generous exercise must mean to the city.

A PATRIOTIC DUTY.

The hope of the future lies in the children of today. Theirs will be the burden of after-the-war problems. But if they are to be crowded out of the city, disturbed in the homes which have been built up about them, fossed here and yon, made the prey of unpatriotic landlords, how can they come into the big, strong heritage which is the heritage of men and women who think great thoughts and do stupendous deeds? It is patriotism to protect them, to welcome them, to cherish them.

Here comes as great a problem, in the men who are crowding into the city to help build the ships and make the things of war. They are for the most part those who are married, accustomed to the care of a home, used to the voice of their children. Their younger brothers have gone overseas to fight. Upon their shoulders has fallen the task of holding the front lines in this country. Our victory hinges on our ships. Our commerce, when war is done, will depend on our development and use of these same ships. Oakland has at last come into its own. Upon what it offers these men and their families in the way of homemaking rests its future. If it is not good for man to live alone, it is far worse for families to be separated. When prohibition goes into effect against children, not only a moral but an industrial suicide is being committed by the city.

ACTION TAKEN ELSEWHERE.

Municipalities of the Atlantic coast have recognized the shallows toward which they were drifting. Just and rigid ordinances have been enacted which have preserved to the cities not alone property but homes and child life. When a local ordinance is proposed Oakland will have a chance to say whether this shall indeed be a city of homes and welcomed children or whether there is no care despite its magnificent schools and playgrounds for its little folk and their welfare. The United States housing commission is cautioning those centers where war industries are being developed to have serious thought for the families in which children are growing up. Refusal to lease vacant houses and apartments because there is a child in the family or demands for a prohibitive rent when boys and girls are to be accommodated are stories for which a "finis" is being written in this city.

RESULTS MORE THAN EXPECTED

Brown Suffered Four Years—Tanlac Restores Him—Gains Six Pounds.

"I never expected to get such wonderful results in so short a time," said F. W. Brown, a valued employee of the Bullock Dry Goods Company, living at 2140 Kent street, Los Angeles, in relating his experience with Tanlac recently.

"For the past four or five years now," he continued, "I have been having trouble with my stomach. My food did not seem to digest properly and never gave me sufficient nourishment. In fact, what little I ate usually nauseated me and made me very uncomfortable. My circulation seemed to be poor and I felt weak and tired and nervous. I could get no restful sleep was losing weight right along and nothing did me any good.

"I had heard so much of Tanlac being used for people in a run-down condition, that I got me a bottle about three weeks ago and in a week's time I was feeling a great improvement. My appetite got better and I soon got so I could eat without having that nauseated, distressed feeling afterwards. After using two bottles I found I had gained six pounds. I have no more trouble with my stomach now and my food all seems to digest like it should. My strength has increased wonderfully and I believe I will soon get all my lost weight back. I am feeling fine now and am glad to tell everybody what Tanlac has done for me."

The food we take in does them absolutely no good unless they digest it. When You suffer from indigestion or other forms of stomach trouble the food does harm, instead of good, because food which is not digested stays in the stomach and ferments, causing pains, swelling, gas on the stomach, shortness of breath, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness and many other disagreeable symptoms. If this condition is permitted to run on for an indefinite period the entire system becomes saturated with poisons and various complications are apt to result.

Mr. Brown's trouble was relieved by Tanlac simply because it toned up his vital organs and enabled him to digest his food properly. In fact, there is no portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tanlac, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the whole system. Next, it enables the weak, worn-out stomach to thoroughly digest its food, permitting the assimilation of the nourishing products to be converted into blood, bone and muscle.

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company Stores.—Advertisement.

RUSH ORDER SENDS TURKEYS 'OUT OF SIGHT'

Preliminary buying for Thanksgiving trade, combined with a "rush order" from Honolulu for 10,000 pounds, to be shipped at once to arrive in time for the Thanksgiving trade, today sent the price of turkeys "out of sight" in the commission market. Buyers tried in vain to fill the Honolulu order. The birds must be frozen and prepared for shipment to catch an early steamer, as they must be "thawed" and prepared for marketing in the islands a week before Thanksgiving.

Arrival of several carloads of Eastern roosters dropped the market in all except broilers and hens today. The slump was more marked in San Francisco than here, as most of the Eastern birds went to the other side of the bay.

Four Girls Save 75 Tons of Prunes

When Miss Carola Kuss, Miss Mabel Kuss, Miss Zoe Hermle and Miss Lillian Anderson saw 153 acres of prunes going to waste on the Kuss ranch, near Danville, they put on their coveralls, rolled up their sleeves and went to picking. Yesterday the quartet of war workers came back to town, weary, brown and experienced, but boasting a practical conservation of foodstuffs to the extent of 75 tons of prunes. It took them two months to accomplish the task. They demanded the regular government price for picking and put it all in Liberty bonds.

French Blue Devil to Make Address

Residents of the French and Belgian colonies of the Eastbay cities are to hold a meeting tomorrow night in Castle Hall, Twelfth and Franklin streets, to listen to an address by Gerard Nocella, one of the Blue Devils of France. He has been decorated five times for bravery under fire. Ch. Moutte of San Francisco also will make a speech and both will tell of their experience and of conditions in France. The meeting is called by the French War Service League.

Miss Heath to Be Bride of Salt Lake Man

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Heath of Haste street, Berkeley, the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Walton Heath, and Joseph S. McInerney of Salt Lake City is to take place this evening at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. Frank S. Brush of the Northbrae Presbyterian Church to officiate. The living room, where the bridal ceremony will be performed, will be decorated in large shaggy white chrysanthemums and greens. The bride's table at the wedding supper to follow, will be arranged for fourteen of the most intimate friends of the couple. About sixty-five guests will be present at the Heath home.

Miss Heath, who is an alumnae of Miss Head's school in Berkeley, is to be attended by Miss Marion Phillips, of the college city. Edward Bowland of San Francisco is to be best man for McInerney.

The bride will wear a dainty bridal gown of white Georgette crepe effectively trimmed in silver lace, and will carry a lace handkerchief, heirloom sent by her grandmother, it having been a gift upon her fiftieth wedding anniversary. Miss Heath will wear a bridal veil of tulle and orange blossoms, which will form the court train to the gown. In place of the formal shower bouquet she will carry an arm spray of bride's roses and maidenhair.

Miss Phillips will wear a bridesmaid's frock of pink georgette crepe and will carry an old-fashioned frilled nosegay of pink and white and blue flowers.

Following the honeymoon trip, McInerney and his bride will go to Salt Lake City to make their home.

Mrs. Edwin James Pond of Alameda will leave Saturday en route to France to take up war work in the civilian relief. She will make the trip via of Washington, D. C., and will meet abroad Miss Sue Dyer of the faculty of the Alameda High School, who went over some time ago. Mrs. Pond, who is the wife of Dr. Edwin James Pond and sister of former Coroner C. L. Tisdale, has been especially trained for her part in the war program, and was one of the chief organizers of the Alameda Red Cross surgical and nursing classes.

Mrs. Pond formerly attended the University of California, where she took a post graduate course in short story writing.

Women of State Shape Bills to Better Sex

By GEORGIA G. BORDWELL

The women of California are getting down to the business end of shaping legislation concerning certain measures for the betterment of their sex.

On Thursday, October 10, the Legislative Council of California will meet in executive session at the Westminster Hotel, Los Angeles. On Friday and Saturday delegates from the north and the south will consider and decide upon the forms of the three bills which the Council has chosen to present to the 1919 Legislature.

The three bills, which have been freely discussed during the past weeks by all women's organizations, are first, a bill concerning certain vital changes in the community property law, second, a bill providing for an industrial farm for women (the word "delinquent" having been discarded as carrying too much of a stigma), and third, an increase in the elementary schools money.

The California Civic League, which besides backing the community property bill with all its moral force, is appropriating $500 to help insure its success, is sending Miss Gail Laughlin, its president, to Los Angeles to present the bill as framed by her.

Miss Laughlin will carry with her the proxies of Mrs. Herbert Lee and Mrs. Frank Law, delegates from Oakland Civic Center, who are unable to go South.

Mrs. Albert Carter of Oakland, president of the Council, will preside at the conference and will tour Southern California in the interests of the Council before her return. Since taking the presidency in the spring, Mrs. Carter has seen the Council double the number of women's organizations which go to make up its membership; the strength in the North has grown tremendously.

This is the first time a three-day conference has been held since the organization of the Council.

Other women from the North who will represent the council at this, probably the most important meeting ever held, will be Miss Blanch Morse for the elementary school money bill, and Mrs. Aaron Schloss for the Industrial Farm.

RED CROSS WOMEN FILL RUSH ORDER

Ten thousand paper-backed absorbent pads, to be finished within two weeks, is a new rush order that came to the Oakland Red Cross this week, and since the Red Cross does not order surgical dressings made unless there is urgent need for them, that good news from the front must cause no let-down in the work, say the heads of the chapter. The dressings will be made by the branches, the auxiliaries and at headquarters, which to speed up the work will be kept open tomorrow night, all day on Saturday and, if necessary, all day Sunday. When asked today if she thought the allotment could be completed in time, the head of the department pointed to the dozens of white clad workers bending over the long table and quietly said: "Not can—but will."

In addition to this another order has been received one to wring the hearts of the women of the auxiliaries, who take time from their own homes and their own children to help fill the order in the required time.

Two thousand dark serge dresses, suitable for little girls 8 years old, and three thousand serge suits for little boys, have been cut at headquarters and given out to the auxiliaries, the backbone of the Red Cross, where they will be made and returned within two weeks. This work, without the blare of music and wholly without material inspiration, bears the mark of true service.

GLENVUE CLUB TO HONOR MRS. SMITH

Holding first place on the club calender for tomorrow is the luncheon to be given by the Glenvue Woman's Club in honor of Mrs. Katherine Smith, president of the Alameda District, Federation of Women's Clubs.

At 10:30 a. m. the executive board of the Rockridge Woman's Club will meet at the clubhouse; Original Writers' section, Ebell Club, will meet at 2:30; Shakespeare section, Adelphian Club of Alameda, will meet at 2 p. m., and an important meeting of the local presidents and federation chairmen of the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs is called for room 20, Oakland High School.

More Men Needed in Munition Plants

Additional work in local explosive and munition plants has been ordered by Secretary Franklin K. Lane, that the flow of shells to France, interruption of which was threatened by the Perth Amboy munitions plant explosion, may not be serious.

Can't every American see through the Kaiser's peace drive? Isn't it plain that all the present peace rumors are only his attempt to fool our people into thinking the war is over, so they will not buy Liberty Bonds? If the war is ended today it is a German victory. To make it an allied victory we must buy bonds and back our boys to success. Oakland, wake up!

AUTO MEN ASKED TO JOIN SERVICE

By EDMUND CRINNION

Herbert Graham, representing the United States army, arrived in San Francisco yesterday to enlist automobile drivers and mechanics for overseas service, driving and repairing trucks. The Motor Transport corporation is organized to take control of all trucks and automobiles in the army, repairing them and furnishing the drivers for the trucks. An enlisted personnel is desired rather than a drafted one, and men rejected in the first draft for physical disability or defects are eligible for enlistment in the Motor Transport Corps if a trained mechanic or driver.

There are 10,000 men to be raised in first enlistment all over the country. Graham has to establish headquarters at 1117 Van Ness ave., San Francisco, for the purpose of enlisting these men. The idea is to give mechanics and drivers, if in the draft age, a chance to enlist in service that they are best suited for and like. They can register with the corps and be exempted from regular army service. They will be examined and the results filled in on blanks to be sent to Washington, and if accepted for service they are assigned to repair bases in this country for training, after which they are sent overseas for service.

This method of selective enlistment insures the placing of men in work they are fitted for and where they can do the best work for the Government. The idea originated with General Pershing, and is under his supervision. The opportunities are fine for those coming in now, as they are on the ground floor and sure to get recognition as "noncoms." The mechanics are to be used for maintaining trucks in repair, and men with driving experience are trained as drivers of motor trucks, etc. The Government is looking to the leading men of the automobile industry in various parts of the country to see that these men are forthcoming.

ACCUSE SAILOR OF TAMPERING GEAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—Charges that the steam cock connecting the steering apparatus of the ship had been shut off, almost causing a collision when the helmsman was unable to handle his vessel, have lodged Bernard Weinberg, of the crew of the steamer Wasco, in the city prison. While he is being held on a book charge of avoidance of the selective service act, the charge of the ship's officers that he is responsible for the trouble with the ship's steering gear are being investigated.

Captain Paul Wiegant of the Wasco had him arrested following a narrow escape from collision in the bay with another ship. It was found that the steering engine was without power. The vessel, in veering suddenly to avoid a collision, struck Pier 41, and her bow was damaged.

Weinberg is said by the ship's officers to have been the only man below decks at the time the trouble was found. According to the police, he was active in the I. W. W. organization before he went to sea.

Knits Sweaters In 28 Days' Time

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Kate Foppiano of Amador county has broken the record for knitting for the Red Cross. She knitted eleven sweaters in twenty-eight days. The Pacific division headquarters of the Red Cross has been notified and it is expected she will be honored, in some special way. Mrs. Foppiano has a son in Battery F of the 347th Field Artillery, which is seeing duty on the western front.

Postum

Good Friend of the Coffee Drinker

Coffee often disagrees with the best of us

When you find it wise to stop coffee for a few days on account of disturbed digestion or too much "nerves," switch to Postum and note the result.

Many people who love their coffee follow this plan with excellent results.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal which must be boiled, and Instant Postum, made in the cup in a moment. They are equally delicious and the cost per cup is about the same.

LABOR NOTES

W. F. Cunningham, Columbia river representative of the Pacific coast district council of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders, and chairman of the finance committee of the council, arrived in Oakland yesterday to hold a conference with E. B. Wolff, president, and H. M. Morris, treasurer, of the local union of the order. Cunningham expects to remain in the city for about ten days. It is reported that his visit was prompted by matters connected with the 44-hour week and the long-deferred Macy award.

The Oakland Milk Wagon Drivers' Union has received instructions from the office of the International that the section of the constitution of the order which provides that all members must either be American citizens or have declared their intentions to be such, must be carried out to the letter. A like notice has been sent to all units of the International in the interest of patriotism and the winning of the war.

At the last meeting of the Central Labor Council it was voted to subscribe as an organization for $250 worth of the fourth issue of Liberty Bonds. F. S. Clark, Typographical Union delegate to the Council, was elected to fill the office of secretary during the two weeks' vacation of the regular secretary. M. P. Scott presided in the place of E. H. Hart, president of the Council, who is in attendance at the convention of the State Federation of Labor at San Diego.

F. B. Perry, secretary of Oakland Barbers' Union, and president of the State Federation of Barbers, left for San Diego yesterday to attend the convention of the State Federation of Labor. He will be absent from his desk in the Labor Temple until next Monday.

Journeyman Tailors' Union, local 266, of Oakland, will make a general request on their employers in the near future for a free workshop. This means a shop or workroom supplied free of charge, together with the necessary fittings. As matters now stand many of the employees take the garments home and work on them there. The men state that this arrangement is not satisfactory and that it is sometimes not sanitary, hence the request.

Notice has been received at local labor headquarters that the employees of the Paraffine Paint Co. have been granted a general advance of 50 cents per day.

The members of the recently organized Telephone Operators' Union are preparing to hold a dance in the Pacific building, corner of Sixteenth and Jefferson streets. October 24 is the date selected.

Maple Hall to Be Open This Evening

Extensive alterations are taking place on the Maple Hall building, Webster and Fourteenth street, and when completed Maple Hall will be the best appointed dance hall in Oakland.

G. Reynolds Van Vleck of New York and a member of the "Inner Circle" of dancing teachers of that city, has leased the hall, and will open it this evening. Van Vleck is considered one of America's best teachers of ballroom dancing, having taught in every large city in the Eastern and Southern part of the United States. He will have associated with him Miss Lila Maple, a graduate of the famous Vestoff-Serova School of Ballet of New York. Miss Maple will have full charge of the ballet and classical work and children's classes Saturday afternoon.

Van Vleck has arranged for a six-piece jazz orchestra to furnish the music for his Wednesday and Saturday night assembly dances, and will cater to the better class of working people on those nights.

Maple Hall has been closed for the past six months and there are many who will be glad to hear of the reopening, as this has always been popular on account of the wonderful floor and ventilation.

Delegation to Go to Cities' Session

The city council has voted $300 to defray the expenses of city officials who will represent Oakland at the annual convention of the California League of Municipalities to be held at Riverside this month.

Those who are expected to attend the convention are Mayor John L. Davie, Superintendent Perry F. Brown of the street department, Dr. C. C. Wing of the health department, Ralph York, chief clerk of the department of public works, Deputy City Clerk Frank Merritt and Purchasing Agent J. H. Brill. They expect to leave Sunday or Monday for Riverside.

New Classes Open at Prescott Night School

New classes are being opened in Prescott Night School as follows, and all interested in joining are invited to attend. The classes meet from 7:15 to 9:15 on the evenings indicated:

Sewing, Monday; cooking, Wednesday; mechanical drawing and ship plans, Monday; home nursing and care of the sick, Tuesday and Thursday; war time cooking, 1:30 to 3 Tuesday afternoon.

Harold Witter Bynner, one of the best known of the younger poets of America, was appointed an instructor on the staff of the department of English.

Governor Stephens Given Endorsement

Consideration of the liquor question was the principal business of the San Francisco Presbytery in meeting yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church in this city. The Presbytery endorsed the candidacy of Governor William D. Stephens because of his stand on the liquor question and by the same token opposed the candidacy of Theodore Bell.

The Rev. D. M. Gandier, superintendent of the California Anti-Saloon League, spoke on the ratification of the national prohibition amendment.

The presbytery adopted the report of the Committee on Public Morals, which follows in part:

"Believing the elimination of the liquor traffic, thus making our own great democracy safe for its future citizenry, to be second only to the winning of the war against the central powers, thus making "the world safe for democracy," we recommend:

"That every pastor be urged to present to his people the issues involved in the gubernatorial contest and emphasize the importance of putting patriotism above partisanship by casting their ballots for the man who is unequivocally committed to the elimination of the liquor traffic, Governor William D. Stephens."

FIVE HELD AS ROBBERY SUSPECTS

Three women and two men under arrest in San Francisco are suspected by the Oakland police or having been the persons who blew the safe in Schlueter's department store here Monday night. One of the men arrested had $1100 in bills and some Liberty bonds in his possession. All five have reputations as Barbary Coast characters and they were arrested as vagrants on the suspicion that they have been engaged in robberies and holdups of late. In front of the house where one of the men was arrested was an automobile without license plates or lights. It is believed to have been stolen. In it were a number of tools, such as burglars and safe-breakers use. Officers of the Oakland department have gone across the bay to see the suspects.

500 San Quentin Convicts on Strike

Five hundred convicts of San Quentin penitentiary employed in the jute mill went on strike yesterday charging that they were being fed unpalatable and unclean food. Four hundred and fifty returned to work this morning following an address by Warden Johnson, fifty remaining stubborn. Of this number seventeen have been placed in solitary confinement as the ring leaders, the balance being confined to their cells.

Shasta Once More Produces New Gold

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 9.—The old mining town of Shasta, famed back in '49 for its gold, never fails to yield more of the yellow metal after a dashing rain. The last storm, which sent floods of water coursing Main street, washed some of the metal from the ground and Grant Schroter, walking along the street yesterday, picked up a $5 gold piece dated 1845.

THE TRIBUNE'S SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE CONTEST IS ON

PUT YOUR BRAIN TO THIS TEST AND WIN A CASH VICTORY!

THE RULES AND CONDITIONS

1—DO NOT TELEPHONE OR WRITE TO THE TRIBUNE FOR INFORMATION. IT WIL NOT BE GIVEN.

2—There are 81 sketches representing different firms. A solution must be submitted for each sketch.

3—Write legibly on only one side of each sheet. Typewritten and script answers will receive equal consideration.

4—Arrange your answers by number, corresponding with the sketch, and answer questions in the order in which they are asked.

5—Continue in this manner numerically until you have answered all of the descriptions.

6—DO NOT INCLUDE INFORMATION NOT ASKED FOR.

7—All awards will be decided by the Skill and Knowledge Contest Editor; and his decisions will be final.

8—Upon completing your list, bind the sheets together and write your name, address and telephone number legibly at the top of the first page. Address the envelope as instructed and your list is ready for delivery or mailing.

9—All lists will be marked on a percentage basis, with absolutely no favor for one contestant over another.

10—THE PERSONS SCORING THE HIGHEST PERCENTAGE WILL BE DECLARED THE WINNERS. Correctness and neatness of answers will be given first consideration, deductions being made for omissions, misspelled words, wrong addresses, failure to punctuate the same as on card furnished each advertiser, and other errors. Only one award will be made to one person or to one family living at the same address.

12—In case of a tie for any one award duplicate payments will be made, with exception of first and second payments, which will be divided.

$250.00 CASH

awaits readers of The TRIBUNE who demonstrate most accurately their acquaintance with Oakland business firms. Familiarize yourself with the conditions of the contest as set forth in this page announcement. Then get busy.

$250.00 will be paid by The TRIBUNE to the 50 persons sending in the correct, or nearest correct, complete list of Oakland firms represented in the descriptive sketches on this page, together with answers to other questions asked in the articles.

Each numbered word sketch represents a firm regularly engaged in business in Oakland.

READ CAREFULLY THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF COMPETITION AND THE LIST OF PAYMENTS BEFORE TRYING TO SOLVE PROBLEMS.

Anyone over 18 years of age is welcome to compete in this contest, except employees of The TRIBUNE and their families.

BE SURE TO SAVE THE DESCRIPTIONS. THEY WILL NOT APPEAR AGAIN! TODAY'S LIST IS FINAL.

This contest closes Tuesday, Oct. 15, at 5 p. m. The correct answers will be published in The TRIBUNE Wednesday, Oct. 16. All answers, in order to be considered, must be either delivered in person on or before this hour or bear a postmark prior to the closing time.

ADDRESS ALL ANSWERS TO THE SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE CONTEST DEPARTMENT, THE TRIBUNE, OAKLAND.

PAYMENTS? HERE THEY ARE!

50 Awards Divided as Follows:

First payment.....$100.00 in cash
Second payment...$ 50.00 in cash
Third payment.....$ 25.00 in cash
The next seven payments, $5.00 each in cash.
The next forty payments, $1.00 each in cash.

No fee of any kind is required. It is only necessary to read the sketches carefully, keeping in mind the rules and conditions of competition, and submit your list of answers within the time limit.

Study each problem closely. Be sure of your solution. Remember, the firms will gladly help you—and that you have six days in which to formulate your solutions.

KEEP THESE THINGS IN MIND

The correct solution to each numbered sketch has already been specified by the firm which that sketch represents, and is on file at The TRIBUNE.

If you think a certain sketch fits a certain firm, call at that firm in person or telephone. Any of the firms described on this page will be glad to tell you if your answer is correct.

The problem sketches are woven around the names, location and products of Oakland business firms.

Sufficient facts are given to distinguish one firm from another, but names locations, and in many instances the name of the leading article of merchandise are purposely omitted.

Upon your skill and knowledge in being able to read correctly the picturization of each sketch depend your earnings in this contest.

NUMBER ONE

Fashion's wing and the peacock's are nearly alike. Both are bright and changeable. No matter how swiftly styles come and go, Oakland makes boast of a company always in advance. Women of discriminating taste journey from San Francisco and Burlingame to patronize it. The riches of the world in Fabrics, Silks, Embroideries, treasures of the universe in Bronzes, Marbles, China, Glass, Rugs, Beauty in Handicrafts and Novelties, make a show place of the three spacious floors. Artistic designers contribute skill to the line of Gowns, Coats and Hats for every occasion. Yet prices are no higher here than any other Oakland store where stocks are limited. Exclusive goods at moderate prices is the policy. Name this company whose sign is the peacock.

NUMBER TWO.

A bank on a busy corner whose slogan is "The Bank of Superior Service. A bank whose combined assets amount to over 35 millions of dollars—whose Liberty Bond department is the most completely organized in Oakland—and sold more Liberty Bonds, more Certificates of Indebtedness than any other bank in Oakland—who is at the head of Oakland's progress and enthusiastic for her future—whose officers are always glad to confer and co-operate with organizations and individuals on civic problems. What is the name of this Bank and where is it located?

NUMBER THREE

A pioneer furniture house in California, founded in Sacramento in 1853, where the main house remains today. After the San Francisco fire they opened a large store in Oakland, in the building now occupied by The Tribune. A year and a half ago this store moved to its present location, 14th and Franklin, the shopping district, where it occupies the largest building on the coast devoted exclusively to furniture. Aside from a very complete line of Furniture and Rugs, they have a large household department, downstairs, where Stoves, Vacuum Cleaners, Kitchen-ware and Crockery are sold. The main floor phonograph department sells Victor, Columbia and Sonora phonographs, and Victor and Columbia Records. A toy department is being opened this week. Everything in this store, including toys, is sold on easy terms. Give name of store.

NUMBER FOUR

Wear a smart dress and be charming. Wear a nifty suit and be gracious. Wear a stunning coat and be popular. The psychology of clothes is no longer jeered at. The rusty, mishapen and tawdry garment will hide good looks, good manners and good brains every time. It will be the same when you go upstairs or down, this Fourteenth Street Cloak and Suit House is stocked to make a new woman of you. The latest ready-to-wear garments? Right in cut and materials at prices which will astonish you. Opportunity to women who have begun to think they have lost their grip. It's clothes they need. Watch the windows. Watch the mouth-end and basement sales. Names and give address of this Fourteenth Street Cloak and Suit House.

NUMBER FIVE

Answer this conundrum. WHERE do you go in Oakland to find the largest stock of office supplies; the newest books in history, travel and fiction; the best books for boys and girls; the latest in stationery and most exclusive engraving; the most satisfactory in development of films and printing of kodak pictures? It is easy. Everybody needs to go. Everybody knows. Already talk of the war Christmas is in the air. Speak your good wishes and holiday greetings, but speak them attractively. This store so early as this offers a marvelous line of Christmas and New Year Cards, more beautiful than ever and at before-the-war prices. Shop early and select from the most exquisite. Name this firm of brothers and give address.

NUMBER SIX

Go to "the always busy store"—"The Largest Department Store in Oakland," centrally located. Here you will find quality and good service and every article in the store is of dependable quality and moderately priced. The store is beautifully lighted by a great center dome, in which hangs one of the finest and largest American flags in Oakland, which is indicative of the character of the men who have conducted this store for many years. If you realize the advantage of purchasing where you have the benefit of a large, well-chosen selection, fairly and reasonably priced, this store will satisfy you. Give name of this store.

NUMBER SEVEN

There is a business college in Oakland that offers the following advantages: An official court reporter, who is the holder of the world's record in shorthand writing and who is also a public stenographer, giving individual instruction to all students. The location is ideal, and students enjoy every natural advantage. At the last Civil Service Examination in San Francisco, for life positions at $200 per month for life, its graduates were among the ones passing the examination; many of its graduates are official court reporters around the bay cities; it is recommended by every official, expert court reporter in the State of California; its tuition is $15 per month. Name this College and give its location.

NUMBER EIGHT

If you would set a good table you must buy "Where you get real things to eat." This is a store in the center of the business district where you never get anything that is not of the best, and yet it is the most economical place to buy, for you always get "full weight, full measure and full count" for your money. Shoppers seldom pass the windows of this store without going in to buy, so tempting and varied are the edibles displayed, and you will be amazed. "The World Our Field," for here delicacies from the whole world are offered you. Give name and address of retail store of this company.

NUMBER NINE

For what candidate for a county office did the voters so express their preference at the primary election that they made him first choice of the Democratic record, when only twice before since the primary law has been in effect has an incumbent county official been forced into second place at the primary election? This candidate, who is a civil engineer, designed the proposed San Francisco-Oakland Bridge. He is the past president of the Oakland Engineers' Club and is everywhere recognized as one of California's expert engineers and surveyors. The Examiner carried the item together with some of the largest engineering projects ever undertaken by the United States." The Bulletin says: "He is one of the most eminent engineers in this country." This candidate lives in Oakland, where he has lived for many years. Name the candidate for county surveyor.

NUMBER TEN

Think before you spend that dollar. Does it bring the thrill of the open spaces. The man and woman who have the capital to who. An Oakland bank which has been doing a general banking business since 1869 will look after your money better than you can yourself. Saving deposits in amounts of one dollar and upward, commercial deposits subject to check at sight will be received. Certificates for temporary deposits, exchange and letters of credit available in Eastern and European cities at low rates are given. Safe-deposit vaults, storage space for bulky articles of value are offered. Name and give location of this bank. Called after a large municipality, and is authorized by the State Banking Department to do a trust business.

NUMBER ELEVEN

You'll be wanting an overcoat soon. Go to "The Home of Overcoats," where you'll find the biggest stock and the greatest variety of Overcoats in the city and every garment allowed. We want you to visit our new Overcoat Department, occupying our entire third floor. This is the message from Oakland's personal service store, which recently revised its name, and whose proprietor takes a personal interest in each purchase, which assures you a service which is not to be overlooked in the buying of Overcoats, Men's and Boys' Clothing. Where will you go for your Winter clothes? Give name and location.

NUMBER TWELVE

There's a time to laugh and a time to cry. America is proving it today. Stress and strain of war demand moments of forgetfulness in the winning of victory. One of the biggest vaudeville circuits has taken over Oakland's finest playhouse to give the people each day brisk, breezy, clean, changeful programs as shall soothe jaded brains and weary bodies. The best in vaudeville and feature pictures is coming here, yet war-time prices do not prevail. The Manager was chosen from this city because he knew the citizens and what they wanted. This is the kind of show he is putting on, with an entire change of program twice each week. Men and women, artists in every line in the mimic world, the famous film plays of the day, make up the big two and a half hours' entertainment. Name this Vaudeville House.

NUMBER THIRTEEN

What department store in Oakland is known as "the Thrift Store" because its customers always find dollar for dollar values? This year this "money-saving department store is specializing on $25.00 Suits, Coats and Dresses, believing that most women prefer to pay no more in war times. This week this store is celebrating the third birthday with a big sale. Another feature to this store is that it is the only department store in Oakland giving "S. & H." green trading stamps, and the many women who save these stamps to get premiums in Charleston's basement buy all their clothing, hats, dry goods and household goods there, to get this added discount. "You can dress better on less money by trading here," is a sentence often found in this firm's advertising. Give name of firm.

NUMBER FOURTEEN

Everything from a fly swatter to a French mirror; from a tea ball to a gas range; from a bread box to a refrigerator; from a candlestick to a brass lamp; from a teaspoon to a dish to a full set of rare imported china; from a glass measuring cup to the choicest piece of crystal; from a screw to the heaviest brasses, find it here. What you need for kitchen, dining room, parlor or bedroom, little and great cost, is ready to hand. This Company has catered so long to Oakland that it has left nothing out of its extensive stock. When a few years ago it decided to cast its fortunes with a large department store, a part of three floors was set aside for exhibition purposes. What is the name and address of this popular Company?

NUMBER FIFTEEN

Christmas and conservation need not be rivals. In the midst of the strife the world needs Christmas. But let the gift be something that will not perish. This jeweler is putting his store on a basis of conferring to the people those things which will make the gift season worthy. The allied advance has been made by watches. He has a complete line of timepieces and wrist watches, with full guarantee. No other house carries a more valuable collection of gold and silver ornaments, jewels, toilet appointments, table plate, glassware and novelties. No one, whatever his purse, but can find some well-chosen and appropriate gift here. Give name and address of this prominent civic worker who owns this store.

NUMBER SIXTEEN

Carefulness in selecting your optician should cause you to trust the making of your glasses only to specialists who have built up a reputation of the highest. Look then for a company who, through their care in accurately filling prescriptions, have built up seven operating seven stores on the Coast. They employ only experts thoroughly skilled in their profession, who work under able directors. The oldest variety of everything in the optical line is carried by this company. Perfect satisfaction is guaranteed. Name this skilled company and give address of Oakland store.

NUMBER SEVENTEEN

A hat to fit your face, whatever kind of a face you have, is the pledge of California's Greatest Hat Store, located in Oakland. This hatter knows what smartly-dressed men will wear this season, and he will tell any other man who may want to know. Why should not men be as careful in selecting head covering, to see that it is up to date and suitable, as a woman when she chooses her chapeau? It is as important to the appearance of one as the other. For the convenience of those who are particular where they purchase their hats, a cleaning and blocking department under experts is maintained. All hats purchased here are cleaned and blocked without charge Name him and give location.

NUMBER TWENTY-THREE

Go where you can forget your troubles. Being human, you probably have them. A good laugh, a good cry, a splendid adventure into the unknown, beneficial dreaming will help. Life look better. Take a tip from the Government. It gives the fighters diversion. Give yourself some. Go to this moving picture theatre, which takes its name from a great nation. Note the big plays which figure their first releases here. Meet "Laughing Bill Hyde," Rex Beach's newest hero, this week, and be introduced to Madge Kennedy and Tom Moore in "The Kingdom of Youth," beginning Sunday. It will do your soul and health good. Not a great deal more is the big, well-ventilated, handsomely-furnished and luxuriously-equipped playhouse, where courtesy is first principle. Name the place to cure the blues and give location of the home of advanced screen drama.

NUMBER TWENTY-FOUR

Send your soldier and sailor lad a wrist watch. He needs it. Men, do not forget the sweetheart who covets the diamond; the wife who loves the gold and silver and precious stones; the mother who treasures her trinkets; the child who dreams the simple locket, bar or the plain ring. There is the right gift for everyone in this 40-year-old jewelry shop, which devotes attention to those things which will not perish. This is the house of solid reputation, which is equally distinguished for watches of railroad men. It is the house whose word is as good as its bond. Christmas is coming. Shop early. Give the things which last. Name this jeweler, which has the largest line in silver, gold and jewels, and give location.

NUMBER TWENTY-SIX

What player-piano was it of which the Oakland Tribune said "Charmed the audience and gave the most perfect piano program ever heard in the Auditorium; for, while the piece carried every shade of meaning the operator directed, it could not make a technical mistake. The human equation is done away with. It was a revelation in playing by machine—it was, moreover, a rare musical treat. It proved itself artist first and machine afterward, even though the machine part is more astounding than the art. It was indeed bewildering mechanism." What player-piano is it that does not produce mechanical music? Give its name and the licensed dealer.

NUMBER TWENTY-SEVEN

No two gowns alike; no duplicates in stock; no factory-made garments. By the French word in its name you may identify a fashionable Fourteenth street shop, always up to the minute in being queen of mileage, the Kelly-Springfield tires solve the problem. EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

RED CROSS IS MADE TARGET OF HUN BOMBS

TRIBUNE BUREAU
2011 SHATTUCK AVE.

BERKELEY, Oct. 9. — Evidence of German plots to deliberately bomb Red Cross hospitals is given in a letter from Oswald Turner, former Berkeleyan, now with the royal air service in France.

Young Turner is one of two brothers serving in France with the British forces, both enlisting from this city some months before the United States declared war. In a letter written just after he was discharged from a hospital after receiving slight wounds, Turner tells of the deliberate campaign of destruction on the part of the Huns against Allied hospitals.

He writes as follows: "Five days after I left the hospital a Hun machine came over the town flying too low for 'Archie.' It was a brilliant moonlight night. The hospital, a huge brick building, had a white roof with a huge Red Cross painted on it. I have, myself, in day time seen this cross from a height of 15,000 feet, so the boche must have seen it by moonlight from 400. He dropped three huge bombs right into the building and those were the only ones he dropped within many miles that night.

"From so low an altitude it is possible to judge your mark to within a few yards. Yet the only thing of military importance close by was not less than 500 yards away. The previous occasions when Fritz wanted to get these other places the aim got them or missed them by very little. That was in a town called S——.

"In all the royal air force, which is about as large and powerful as any other two air services put together, I don't think you could find a man who would drop a bomb intentionally on a Red Cross. I have merely mentioned these two instances to let you know what the boche is doing continually. These cases are not the ones you read of. They are a long way from the scene of the big raids that were reported in the papers."

LABOR FEDERATION TO RE-ELECT MEN

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 9.—For the fifth consecutive time, Daniel C. Murphy has been chosen to head California labor. At the convention of the State Federation here today he was nominated for president. The nominations were closed, insuring his re-election.

Paul Scharrenberg, secretary of the federation, was also nominated without opposition, and George A. Tracy, Typographical No. 21, San Francisco, was the sole nominee for delegate to the American Federation of Labor. This insures the election of the three leaders.

Other nominations were:

Vice-presidents:

The federation went on record this morning as favoring the creation of a legal department for the defense of organized labor. The federation also voted to request priority rights for fuel and supplies for commercial print shops throughout the state. These measures were reported by the resolutions committee. The resolution providing for the organizing of a legal department recommends that ways and means for financing of the legal department be deelgated to the executive council of the federation.

Expenses Asked for Enlisted Nurses

Resolutions asking the government to pay the expenses for travel and equipment of women who enlist in the Nurses' Aid will be sent to Washington signed by twenty-two women's organizations of Alameda county. This action was decided on today at a meeting of the Woman's Committee of the County Council of Defense. The co-operation of the War Council of the State Council of Defense will be obtained. It is pointed out that there are many young women who are anxious and competent to take a nurse's position, but who have insufficient means to equip themselves to and pay transportation and other expenses to some distant post to which she might be assigned.

Elston Will Speak at Merchants' Luncheon

Congressman J. Arthur Elston will be the speaker tomorrow at a joint luncheon of the Merchants' Exchange and the Lions' Club, to be held at the Hotel Oakland, when the congressman will tell of American war aims and discuss the Liberty Loan drive.

Details of the affair were outlined at last night's meeting of the directors of the exchange.

DARTING, PIERCING SCIATIC PAINS

Give way before the penetrating effects of Sloan's Liniment

So do those rheumatic twinges and the loin-aches of lumbago, the nerve-inflammation of neuritis, the wry neck, the joint wrench, the ligament sprain, the muscle strain, and the throbbing bruise.

The ease of applying, the quickness of relief, the positive results, the cleanliness, and the economy of Sloan's Liniment make it universally preferred.

MOTHER WITH MOST CHILDREN IN WAR SOUGHT

That mother in Oakland who has the most children in war service is desired to take an honor place in the Liberty loan parade to be held Saturday. So far the publicity department of the loan committee has heard of a mother of six children who are in war service, but it is the belief that there may be some family where more have enlisted. Any mother who desires to establish her claim for this honor is requested to communicate with the Liberty loan publicity committee, City Hall.

FIGHT TO FINISH IS KEYES' APPEAL

Appeal to President Wilson not to conclude an armistice until the enemy "submits to an unconditional surrender," was sent to Washington today by O. E. Keyes, principal of the Oakland high school, speaking in behalf of boys from the school who are now at the front. The appeal was sent in the form of a telegram to Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, and read as follows:

"Oakland High School has 400 men, including my own son, in the service. Many have distinguished themselves; several have fallen in battle. The fathers and mothers of these boys are proud to dedicate them to so holy a cause. We earnestly request our Government to permit our sons to fight until the enemy submits to unconditional surrender. May I ask you to convey to the President this request from your old high school?

"O. E. KEYES, Principal.

Little Girl Hurt In Auto Collision

The little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Cowdrey of the Cowdrey Sanitarium was severely injured this afternoon in a collision between an automobile driven by Mrs. Cowdrey and a street car at Nineteenth street and Telegraph avenue. Bystanders said that the machine was crossing Telegraph avenue when the accident occurred. The child was taken home. The machine was badly smashed, but Mrs. Cowdrey escaped serious injury.

Oakland Man Shot in Oregon

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 9.—J. B. Brown of Oakland, Cal., is in a hospital here, shot through the left lung, and may die. He was wounded when peace officers fired on an automobile in which he was riding, to stop it for a booze search. Several gallons of whisky were found in the car. The driver of the car fled.

POLICE SAY THEY WERE NOT HARSH

Denial of charges made by shipyard workers that they had been mistreated when they were arrested by the police for riding on the fenders and roofs of street cars was made to the city council in a communication from Chief of Police J. H. Nedderman, enclosing a report from Captain J. F. Lynch. The shipyard workers had complained that they were kept in jail all night without food.

Enforcement of the ordinance against riding on fenders and roofs of cars has been protested by the workers on the ground that the company has been unable to provide adequate service. A request has been made to permit the use of jitneys.

Captain Lynch, in the report transmitted by Chief Nedderman, stated that eleven men had been arrested at Water and Franklin streets in the evening when the shipworkers were on their way home, and had been charged with violating the city ordinance by riding on the roof and fenders of a street car. He said that they had been brought to the city hall police station, and had been shown more consideration than was usually the case, inasmuch as they had not been searched, and the police officers at the station had telephoned to the families and friends of those arrested to obtain bail for them. Later eight more men had been brought in for the same offense.

Of those arrested, three did not have their proper draft classification cards, and were held for the Government over night while this matter was being adjusted. Lynch denied that they were refused food. The report said:

"All prisoners are treated alike. These men were asked in the evening if they wanted anything to eat, and said they did not. In the morning they could have eaten breakfast with the other prisoners had they been willing to do so."

The report was placed on file, and a copy of it will be sent to the boilermakers and sheet metal workers' unions.

Key Route Building Out of Fire Limits

The city council today consented to amend the fire ordinance by modifying the fire limits to remove the office building of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways at Twenty-second and Grove streets from the district. Action was taken at the request of the company to make possible the erection of a woden frame structure on the roof of the building for the convenience of women employees who have been added to the staff of the traction company as a result of war conditions. Building Inspector Joseph Lloyd, to whom the request had been referred, reported that he had no objection to permission being granted provided the council removed the building from the fire limits. This will be done by ordinance.

THREE MAY FACE MURDER CHARGE

Charles Baender, paroled prisoner, George Lewis and Frank Alderson, believed by the police to have been the companions of N. C. Brown, the bandit who shot Sam Misovich, cook at the Market street restaurant, early Monday morning, will be taken before the deputy district attorney by the police and warrants will be asked charging them with complicity in the crime.

The district attorney's office will be asked for an opinion as to whether a charge of murder, based upon the assumption that the men were accessories before the fact in the shooting of Misovich would be justified by the evidence in the hands of the police. All three men have previous records against them.

The men were arrested as a result of information given by Brown when he lay dying at the Emergency hospital after a revolver duel with Nicholas Ucci, a deputy sheriff. Ucci was wounded and is still in a precarious condition.

Baender, the fourth man to be arrested, was paroled from San Quentin while serving sentence for grand larceny for the theft of automobile tires. Subsequently his home was raided by federal agents, who discovered molds for making $5 gold pieces in the place. He was arrested and released under bond.

Mrs. Cedric Wright Is Accorded Ovation

Mrs. Cedric Wright, violinist, was accorded an ovation at the second concert of the twenty-fifth season of the Oakland Orpheus Club last night at the Municipal Auditorium theater, when she took the place of Frederick Preston Search of Mare Island, who was quarantined and could not take part in the concert. Mrs. Wright rendered several violin numbers, among those which were most enthusiastically received being Kreisler's "Tambourin Chinois" and the Gypsy Aairs by Natches.

Desaix McCloskey, baritone, was recalled again and again after the singing of the famous Soldier's Farewell, "Dio Possente," from Gounod's "Faust." He also sang "Roadways" by Densmore, "Love or Not," Secchi. He alos rendered the song written by T. Leslie Taylor, a member of the Orpheus, "Your Girl and My Girl." The words are by Frank Gassaway.

An exceptionally fine number offered by the chorus was "Go, Pretty Rose," arranged by J. de P. Teller as a chorus and two echo choruses. The club was led by Edwin Dunbar Crandall, director of the Orpheus for many years.

HELD FOR LIQUOR SALE.

Swan Anderson of Livermore, who was arrested by Deputy Marshal Frank J. Ralph on a charge of selling liquor to soldiers, was held to the federal grand jury in bonds of $500 by a United States commissioner here.

Red Cross Notes

The work of Irving Kahn in the local chapter, American Red Cross, has been recognized by his appointment as assistant to Acting Manager A. B. C. Dohrmann of the Pacific division. Kahn has been purchasing agent and chairman of finance for the Oakland Chapter since the beginning of the war. He brings to his volunteer work a wide experience in organization work gained through his commercial interests here.

Oakland Chapter is the first in the Pacific division to return the questionnaires in the nation-wide nursing survey being conducted by the American Red Cross Society. The local nursing survey committee is fully organized. Mrs. Elby Wagner, on receipt of the official documents Saturday, visited each of the hospitals, averaging about 50 completed questionnaires in each. Mrs. O. T. Williams, director of the nursing survey in the Pacific division, is receiving the reports, which will constitute a permanent record of all the nursing resources in California, Arizona and Nevada. The territory is accredited with having 16,100 nurses.

Registered nurses are requested to inform themselves as to the date of their registration, number and date of graduation and if a Red Cross member, the badge number, that the work of filling in the questionnaire may be hastened.

Units of nurses for emergency work at home are being formed on account of the lack of nurses available. Graduates, practical experienced nurses and nurses' aids are registering this week at the Hut, City Hall Plaza.

Classes in elementary hygiene and home care of the sick will open October 23 and 24, at 7:15 p. m., in room 234, Oakland Technical high school.

TWO TRIBUTES TO LATE JURIST

Alameda county offered its last tribute to Superior Judge Frank B. Ogden this afternoon at two simple ceremonies held at the bier of the late jurist. Relatives and personal friends assembled at the family home, 2335 Valdez street, at 2 o'clock for a brief service, which was conducted by Rev. Frank M. Silsley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Ogden has been an officer.

The Masonic service was held in the Scottish Rite Cathedral at 3 o'clock under the auspices of Live Oak Lodge, No. 61, F. and A. M. Music was furnished by the Temple quartet. Oakland Commandery, No. 11, Knights Templar, in full temple regalia, acted as escort.

The honorary pallbearers were: Judges William H. Waste, T. W. Harris, Everett J. Brown, James G. Quinn, Joseph S. Koford, Dudley Kinsell and W. M. Conley; H. W. Brunk, grand master of I. O. O. F.; H. J. Anderson, exalted ruler of Oakland Lodge, No. 171, B. P. O. E.; George Kirk, trustee First Presbyterian church; Thomas M. Robinson, council commander Oakland Camp, No. 94, Woodmen of the World, and Samuel Samuels, Oakland Odd Fellows, No. 118.

H. Clarence Ogden, a son; R. H. Cooley, a son-in-law; Samuel S. Shepherd, a brother-in-law, and the following men who have been closely associated with Judge Ogden in public life; Probation Officer Robert Tyson, Official Reporter J. Spencer Riley, Clerk Paul Wutho, Clerk L. A. Rudolph and Bailiff Edward Barrett were the active pallbearers.

Judge Ogden was a past master of Live Oak Lodge and past commander of Oakland Commandery, Knights Templar. He died on Sunday at his country home in Lake county.

Mrs. Rosalie Ogden Miller, mother of the late jurist, whose home is in Los Angeles, has arrived here, being notified yesterday of her son's death.

WHEN SLEEP DOES NOT REFRESH YOU

People who are tired out, who arise in the morning feeling that sleep has not refreshed them, are in a state of nervous exhaustion that borders on the condition that doctors call neurasthenia. The causes are varied. The symptoms are over-sensitiveness, irritability, a disposition to worry over trifles, headache, possibly nausea.

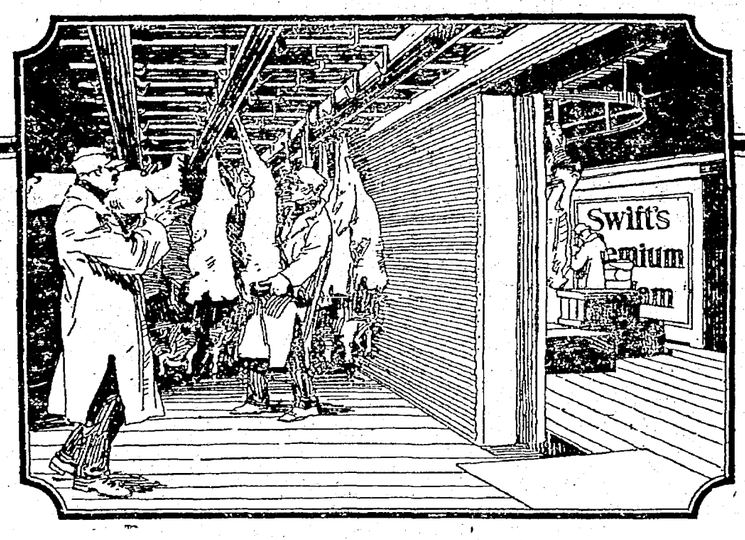
"My nervous system was weakened," said Mr. Charles Crowley of 84 Richard street, West Lynn, Mass., "my limbs were shaky and the muscles sore. At times it seemed my limbs would give out. The muscles of my shoulders were painful and sore. I had severe headaches. My rest seemed to do me no good and I was tired in the morning. There was a trembling sensation when I walked.

"I learned of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through a newspaper and after finding the first box of pills helped me I took two more boxes. I am feeling good, the nervous twitchings are gone and I sleep and eat well."

The treatment in cases like this is one of nutrition of the nerve cells, requiring a non-alcoholic tonic. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood the treatment must be directed toward building up the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and with proper regulation of the diet have proved of the greatest benefit in many cases of neurasthenia.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by druggists everywhere or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for on the blood and nerves.

Send The TRIBUNE to the boys at Camp Lewis. Home news will be deeply appreciated by the boys of the National Army.



Ice Boxes on Wheels

Refrigerator cars for carrying meat are ice boxes traveling on wheels.

Most people in America would have to go without fresh meat, or would have to pay more for what they could get, if it were not for these traveling ice boxes.

Gustavus F. Swift, the first Swift in the packing industry, saw the need of these traveling ice boxes before others.

He asked the railroads to build them. The railroads refused. They were equipped, and preferred to haul cattle rather than dressed beef.

So Gustavus F. Swift had to make the cars himself. The first one was a box car rigged up to hold ice. Now there are 7,000 Swift refrigerator cars. Each one is as fine an ice box as you have in your home.

Day and night, fair weather and foul, through heat and cold, these 7,000 cars go rolling up and down the country, keeping meat just right on its way to you.

Thus another phase of Swift & Company's activities has grown to meet a need no one else could or would supply, in a way that matched Swift & Company ideas of being useful.

When you see one of these Swift & Company cars in a train, or on a siding, you will be reminded of what is being done for you as the fruit of experience and a desire to serve.

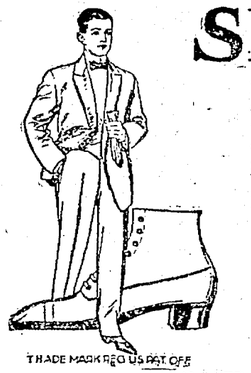
Marching Shoes for Civilians

In an age of much riding, we have become a trifle forgetful of the real uses of feet. But Uncle Sam selects shoes for his men with the idea that they are to cover distances in them.

Here is a sure-enough military shoe, with a toe plenty wide, a full tread, and a sturdy heel. It will add horsepower to your foot-power, for it makes nothing of the day's work of a civilian. Try your feet in a pair. You won't take them off. Our men arriving home after winning the war will insist upon having shoes like these.

Walk-Over SHOES



How often have you wished you could get boots as distinctive as military boots? Only a shoe without a toe-box seems to make the most of a lustrous shine.

This plain-toe shoe for civilians is made upon a recent last. It has a dignified 7/8 inch heel, a quiet, easy tread, and a soft, pliable toe.

It's especially suited for men with slightly broad feet, but on any foot it looks neat. Come in and see how that soft, pliable toe feels.

Walk-Over shoes are known the world over.

STOP WRANGLING AND ATTEND TO THE PUBLIC BUSINESS.

"Disgraceful" is the only single word that approaches adequate description of the official activities of the city commissioners of Oakland during the last ten days. Moreover, these activities have been exceedingly harmful.

In the midst of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, the greatest war effort the country has undertaken, the members of the city council have wasted, and are still wasting, their time in petty squabbling and low political maneuvering among themselves. Not only have the members of the council failed to devote all their time and efforts to patriotic work and the public service, which in all conscience they should have done; they have turned themselves into an element of distraction and interference.

Public scandal has been created and exploited to the detriment of the good name and the laudable efforts of the people of Oakland, when opportunity is knocking loudest at the city's door. The most culpable actors in this scandal are the council members themselves. Again, we say it is disgraceful.

Attempts have been made to shift members of the council from the control of one department to another. Charges of conspiracy by one member against another have been made; female detectives, "shadows," marked money, rifled desks and other phrases and devices of the lower quarters of life have been introduced into the city council chamber, by one member against the other. The chief of police has been permitted to take a part in the sordid events, with apparently more desire to strengthen the case of one partisan in small official politics against another than to bring offenders of the law to justice.

Every act of the council in this connection has been unseemly, unnecessary and utterly unmindful of the public good. Conspiracy is a crime and all evidence of conspiracy or any other criminal offense should be presented to the district attorney and to the grand jury. Punishment of crime does not lie within the authority of the city council. Votes of the city council do not establish the guilt or innocence of any man. The council chamber was not the place to stage the unlovely affairs and every member of the council knew it.

The truth of the whole matter is that all the commissioners are more deeply concerned with their petty individual prestige and political gain, with the preferment and prerogatives of the respective offices, than they are with service to Oakland and to the country. They have proved this by the disgraceful episodes of the last ten days, when they have obscured every other consideration under their personal interest in the public offices with which they have been entrusted.

If we could expect the city commissioners to feel the emotion of shame at public dereliction of duty we might expect them forthwith to stop their petty bickerings and squabbles and political juggling and get down to the business of Oakland and the winning of the war. If we could expect them to feel chagrin over having neglected incontinently the public trust we might expect them to resign from office.

But these things are improbable, if not impossible. The people of Oakland can only speculate on how long pressing public affairs will be neglected for political tricks and trickery; how long the city must suffer from the disgraceful spectacle; how long the members of the city council, the police department and others making sensational charges to the detriment of Oakland, will in broken faith withhold from the proper authorities the information about misdeeds they pretend to possess.

THE PRESIDENT MEANS "NO."

Only one thing is to be regretted about the reply of President Wilson to the overtures of the central powers for a peace conference. It leaves the way open for an answer—in fact, intimates that a reply is expected from Germany.

Otherwise the note is all that can be desired by the American people or the people of the Ally countries.

With a significance that cannot possibly be mistaken, the President enquires if the German government means that it accepts the conditions set forth in his address to Congress on January 8th last, the fourteen terms of peace. This, of course, Germany does not mean. The kaiser's new spokesman, Chancellor Prince Maximilian, merely made a pretense, a very thin pretense, at accepting the fourteen terms as a "basis for discussion." That will not do. These terms are not open to discussion, as the President's answer plainly indicates.

The President declines consideration of an armistice at this time, or so long as enemy forces occupy the soil of Ally countries. He holds that the good faith of any discussion would manifestly depend upon the consent of the central powers immediately to withdraw their forces from invaded territory.

This condition involves compliance with those of the fourteen terms which THE TRIBUNE on Monday mentioned as demanding fulfillment before a cessation of the fighting. Under it Belgium, France, Russia, Serbia, Montenegro, Rumania and Italy will be evacuated. This before discussion of other peace conditions are permitted or the tender mercies of an armistice extended.

The German Chancellor is also required to state whether he is speaking merely for those constituted authorities who have been responsible for the war and its conduct. Reference is here made to the Potsdam gang, the men who have prosecuted the policies of brute force, compulsion and frightfulness; who have committed all the crimes of murder, theft, pillage, arson and rape. These are the authorities without honor or the power for covenanted peace. With them we cannot deal.

Germany, being in control of the junkerists, the militarists and Pan-Germans, will not give favorable answers to the questions the President of the United States has propounded. The German people are not yet repentant of the crimes committed by their government and which they have glorified by public celebration and rejoicing. The heart of Germany, rottened under the influence of kultur, the dream of world dominion and the blood of ravaged peoples, has not yet reformed.

President Wilson's note will merely remove some of the illusions as to what is before Germany. More fighting, probably prolonged fighting, is necessary to finish the task. America has made up her mind to this and will continue until victory is complete.

There can be no peace by compromise.

IN EXACT JUSTICE.

There may be some question as to the propriety of Congress adopting the resolution introduced Monday by Senator McCumber, purporting to set forth the views of the legislative body on peace conditions. Upon this point THE TRIBUNE does not entertain at this time a decided opinion. It is necessary to know first whether such action by the Congress would aid the President in his many tasks, whether it is necessary or would be agreeable to the chief executive.

But as to the conditions set forth in that resolution there can be no doubt that they represent the united thought of the people of the United States. Exact fulfillment of every condition in the McCumber resolution should be required. This would mean exact justice, and we want nothing less. The terms of the Senate resolution are:

1. That the central powers accept President Wilson's fourteen points.
2. That they pledge reparation for all wrongs.
3. That all cities and towns destroyed by their armies be reconstructed.
4. That every dollar exacted from the populations of occupied Belgian and French territory be repaid.
5. That every ship sunk in violation of international law be replaced.
6. That Alsace-Lorraine and the $1,000,000,000 indemnity exacted from France in 1870 be returned.
7. That every crime committed by the armies of the central powers in violation of international law be paid for in dollars and cents.

To these should be added the condition that the high officials of the central powers responsible for the commission of crimes in violation of international law and the rules of warfare be surrendered for trial and punishment before Ally courts. This program fulfilled and the war for peace will be won and the world made safe for democracy.

Yet there is another point that must not be overlooked. In enforcing the peace conditions every German man and woman should be led to understand there is such a thing as the universal and inherited rights of man, that the law of right and justice is supreme to the law of brute force and compulsion. The German people, not the officials only, have believed that might was the only law, that the power to take or do a thing made the taking or doing lawful. They must forget this viewpoint, repudiate it and all it represents. Else the world will not be safe from future disturbance.

NOTES and COMMENT

Young Boris III, on ascending the Bulgarian throne, said a-plenty in that observation about sharing with the people their joy in the country's "brilliant exploits and constant progress." The young czar may mean well, but he needs to be blue-penciled.

There is now a Federal law against vote traffic in Congressional elections. The President signed it yesterday. There have always been laws against illegality at the polls, but more respect is paid to Federal than to State, county or municipal laws. It is much more difficult to get to the Federal ear with alibis.

* * *

The burglars who blew a safe and used an American flag as a muffler to deaden the sound committed a double crime. Desecrating the Stars and Stripes is heinous, and of course burglary is an offense.

* * *

All who have had any important experience in the embattled countries and thereby have gained practical knowledge of the Hun character are emphatic against listening to peace proposals. And considering how the peoples interested are unanimous against it, there is not much danger of the kaiser's trick working out.

* * *

The account of the woman who lost $30 in retrieving a 98-cent umbrella illustrates the general disinclination to lose these impediments. But it does not illustrate their everlasting inclination to get lost.

* * *

The man who stood at a Liberty Loan booth and duplicated every sale that was made until his roll was used up illustrated a good way to promote the fund. There are always those to dare one who thus issues a defi.

* * *

"My navy is holding its own," says the Kaiser. And, in the very narrowest sense, that is just all it is doing. And it has to stay very close around home to do that.

* * *

Now, this talk about an honorable peace—just what does it mean? Nations that have not conducted an honorable war cannot be relied on to arrange an honorable peace after all chance for victory has passed from their grasp. This is so plain that its formal suggestion ought not to be necessary.

Illustrating what a serious thing it is for a soldier to "soldier," a private in the Coast Artillery has just been sentenced to be dishonorably discharged and to be confined for ten years at hard labor for saying that if sent to France he would desert to the Germans at the first opportunity. If he is not now sorry that he spoke he must be considered as callous in the dome.

Four women were arrested in Washington for attempting a demonstration against the United States Senate on account of its attitude on the suffrage question. The idea is not unreasonable that there are other things on hand of transcending importance, and that suffrage can wait a little.

The French National Congress of Socialists announces that the Socialists of that country are behind President Wilson, but—— This is not a good time for anybody to interpose buts as to the President's policy.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

The humble prune has climbed up from the third floor back in a boarding-house to a place where we shall all long to know it more intimately. All of California's prune crop has been taken for the army and navy and that isn't going to leave any to speak of for civilians. The joke is no longer on the prune but on the civilian.—Stockton Record.

Forty-eight different propositions and amendments will be submitted to the voters in November next. How many men and women, on the 5th of that month, will be prepared to pass intelligently upon those measures? Direct legislation has a fine sound. It appeals to the people and there are instances when it serves a most admirable purpose. But it is folly to suggest that the voters of the state will be prepared to pass upon the forty-eight different measures and do it intelligently.—Bakersfield Californian.

It is argued on behalf of Mr. Newberry, the candidate for the Republican nomination for the Senate in Michigan, that in spending $176,563 in the primary campaign, he was merely trying to get as much publicity advertising as Henry Ford had to start with.—Sacramento Union.

THE ROAD THAT GOES WEST.

When from this war my way lies to the west,
Footsore and muddy, wounded, shattered, spent,
Death being past I shall but crave a rest,
A kindly hostel, welcome and content.

Some hope for golden streets and gates of pearl
And some for haloes and a sea of glass,
May God forgive me for a thankless churl—
I'd rather have one field of daisied grass.

I am too battle-stained for mansions fine,
Too tired for the flutes and minstrelsy.
A Paradise remote and green be mine,
An English Heaven were good enough for me.

—W. M. Letts in the October Yale Review.

CHANGING AMERICA.

The changes in the United States in a year and a half are as great as those of a century and a quarter preceding 1917. If a magician's wand could still the guns, cage the airships and petrify the submarines today, those changes would still go on, making of the United States of America a new country. By no possibility can we ever go back to the United States of a year ago. Our country is changed in internal conditions and external relations, changed in the organization of its man power, in the form of its government, in its ideals of public service, in its conception of playing a great part in the world.

That the ideals of America have been altered is a thing far surpassing in significance the little cataclysms from day to day. Acts of Congress, speeches of the President, decisions of draft boards, edict of the fuel lord, plans of field campaign, methods of warfare—all these are only outward evidences of an inward feeling. Now, inward feelings are the real substance of life. Calvin and his fellow theologians were absolutely right in insisting that what man believes is much more important than what he does, in the sight of God and man. The whole war is a striking example of the tremendous effect of national beliefs, ambitions and guiding principles in forcing men and nations into action which by all ordinary calculation is contrary to their own interests. The great question in American life and American government is not what the authorities and the people are doing, but what American people think is right in national conduct, for their conceptions of right and wrong will direct their national policy. Nothing can be clearer than that the most cherished principles of government are ignored: that the American mind has coined a new set of ideas and ideals, based on the fundamental necessity of keeping democracy alive, notwithstanding many sacrifices of the traditional essentials of democracy.—Albert Bushnell Hart in the October Yale Review.

Losing No Time

It was late in the afternoon when the Scotch minister arrived at the farmhouse. The housewife suggested that perhaps he would like a cup of tea before he began the "exercises."

"Na, na," said he, "I aye tak my tea better when my work is done. You can put the pan on and leave the door ajar, an' I'll draw to a close in prayer when I hear the haam fizzin'."—Boston Transcript.

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

Surgery Is Considered the Surest Method of Preventing Cancer.

BY DR. LEONARD K. HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University.)

Cancer is not a blood disease any more than that it is carried by germs. Neither is it a general disorder within the mechanism. Cancer is purely a local disease caused by friction or irritation.

In its early stages cancer is hardly ever recognized. In the regions of the lips, tongue and inside of the mouth cancer may at first appear as a sore or chafing. The sores may later become deepened and develop into ulcers. At both of these stages cancer may still be prevented if a surgeon is at once consulted.

In the breast cancer is very rarely recognized, and the "watchful waiting" policy of many a modest woman and ignorant physician has caused many a fatality.

If a lump is present in the breast it may or may not be malignant, but under either circumstance the lump must be removed. If the lump or tumor is malignant an act of charity has been committed by its removal, for its next stage would have been probably the chronic, or cancer stage of the tumor—a most dangerous situation, and the results of operation would at this period be very doubtful. If the tumor, on the other hand, was an "innocent" one, no harm would be done to the breast by its removal.

Cancer of the thyroid gland must be treated in its early stages if any hope of prevention or cure can be expected. An irregular lump may be noticed in the thyroid gland, and in time this may involve the surrounding parts. In the internal parts or in the bone joints there may be felt unusual pain, and upon thorough examination there may be found a slight, apparently harmless little growth, which is the budding form of cancer. Removal at once is the best and earliest hope of cure.

Cancer of the stomach or any local area must be treated with marked promptness if cure is to be sought. In each of these parts the early stages of cancer may appear in a slight growth, the presence of which may at first not be detected as harmful. Any unusual pain or an unusual amount of heartburn should be a sufficient warning that the physician should be consulted.

If in your judgment it does not matter when a wart or mole is removed, whether today, tomorrow, this year or next year, you may pay the penalty some time in your life.

It is most advisable to have removed all external growths whether they cause trouble or not. When they begin to show signs of the slightest irritation, however, it becomes imperative for them to be removed. If later trouble is not to be wooed. These growths and skin patches, moreover, should be removed by thorough surgery, as halfway measures in this instance are not only worthless, but even more dangerous than if the growth had been left alone.

BERKELEY GOES OVER TOP IN BOND SALES

IT IS UP TO OAKLAND TO RAISE QUOTA

Berkeley went over the top today in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive, and at noon had exceeded its quota by $50,000. The quota is $2,351,700. Including Piedmont, which was made a separate district, Berkeley is the third Alameda county city to go over the top, Alameda having announced its quota being exceeded yesterday.

Oakland is not keeping up an average that will enable it to even make its quota, and Alameda county as a whole is only a little more than 50 per cent subscribed. Following are figures showing the subscriptions as reported to the General Committee:

District—	Quota.	Amt. subscribed to date.
Oakland ...	$13,320,350	$5,777,050
Berkeley ...	2,351,700	2,307,456
Alameda ...	960,150	980,250
Emeryville ..	86,250	76,950
Hayward ...	335,950	158,400
Livermore ..	258,700	205,450
Pleasanton .	169,850	84,150
San Leandro.	390,500	178,850
Washington township .	318,050	183,600
Co. total...	$18,191,500	$9,952,150

JOY IN BERKELEY

There was a great jubilation in Berkeley when it was announced that the quota had been exceeded.

At 7 o'clock this morning the general committee announced that $46,000 was necessary to make the quota today. The committee of 800 responded, and the Boy Scouts went to headquarters in droves.

Each man and each boy constituted a committee of one to raise the entire amount, and they worked until noon. At noon the half day's work had brought in $96,000 in subscriptions.

This afternoon a big advertising parade, headed by the fire department with sirens blowing, bells ringing and horns tooting, traversed the streets of the city announcing the bond victory, and tonight everybody in Berkeley who wears a Fourth Liberty Loan button and those who would but can't are invited to attend the raising of Berkeley's honor flag awarded her for going over the top in the Fourth drive.

There will be no speeches. It will be just a neighborly jollification over a good deed well done. Sixteen thousand subscribers helped push Berkeley over, and the committee wants everyone of them at the flag raising tonight.

MAYOR TO RAISE FLAG

The flag will be raised by Mayor Samuel C. Irving, Chairman W. F. Morrish of the general committee, E. F. Louideck of the special events, Roy R. Henderson, sales manager of the campaign; Mrs. R. G. Boone, chairman of the women's committee, and a Boy Scout.

When the flag takes the breeze under the white glare of a searchlight, Lydia Sturtevant will lead the assemblage in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner."

The committee will get down to business and raise so much more that Berkeley can have a battleship named after her.

ALAMEDA TO CELEBRATE

The Fourth Liberty Loan in Alameda has been sent over the top so successfully that the city is entitled to fly the honor flag. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock the emblem of the Encinal city's patriotism will be presented by County Chairman W. W. Garthwaite of the Liberty Loan Committee. A special program is being prepared, the school children who so loyally appeared at the opening of the drive will appear in formation, community singing will be a feature and several other patriotic numbers will be added.

Before Saturday dawns it is the hope of the committee which is sending out Alameda's slogan, "Make it a million," that the pledges and additional subscriptions will bring the city's total up to the desired mark. A number of canvassers are combing their districts with the hope of swelling the total, and reports from these quarters are most favorable.

LITTLE MARY HERE TO SELL LARGE BONDS

Oakland will greet Mary Pickford at the Civic Auditorium tonight.

The meeting, which will be held under the auspices of the local Liberty Loan committee, will probably be the largest of its kind ever held in this city and, according to the committee, should result in a generous subscription for Liberty Bonds of the fourth issue.

Miss Pickford's visit in Oakland is in compliance with a request made of her by William McAdoo, secretary of the treasury.

COMES TO SELL BONDS.

Miss Pickford said today, upon her arrival here that she has come here to sell Liberty Bonds and to aid the local committee by doing all that she could to help Oakland out of its "seeming slough of despond" as is represented by its present subscription totals as against its needed quota of $13,320,350.

Her trump cards will be played tonight in the Civic Auditorium before an audience which it is estimated will probably exceed 15,000 persons. After two or three preliminary numbers Miss Pickford will be introduced. She says her speech will be a short one, for the reason that she "wants to get to selling bonds as quickly as possible."

Accompanied by representatives of the Twelfth Federal reserve district "Little Mary" arrived in Oakland just before the noon hour. She was officially welcomed and greeted upon her arrival by Mrs. Harold Havens, Miss Sally Long and Miss Sally Havens, who represented the Liberty Loan committee.

PARADE IS HELD.

Immediately upon her arrival a short parade was held in the downtown district. A platoon of police headed the affair. This was followed by Miss Pickford, who in turn was followed by a division of returned allied officers, a division of returned enlisted men and by massed bands from the shipyards. The route of the parade was out Broadway to Telegraph, to Seventeenth street, to San Pablo avenue, to Fifteenth street, and thence to the city hall, where the parade disbanded in front of the Liberty Loan headquarters.

From the city hall Miss Pickford was escorted to the Hotel Oakland, where she was the geust of honor of the Commercial Club. One of the features of the luncheon was the selling of bonds by the screen actress who presented each buyer of a $1000 bond, or one of higher denomination, with a personally autographed photograph of herself. The buying, while totals have not as yet been made known, was brisk and marked with considerable enthusiasm.

A band of 100 pieces has been donated by the Musicians' Union of Oakland to furnish the music at the meeting in the Auditorium. Paul Steindorff, director of the Oakland Municipal Band, will direct it.

DOUBLE 3RD! IS SLOGAN TO RESCUE LOAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—"At the present rate of going and with the present average per capita subscriptions," said a treasury loan review today, "the fourth Liberty loan may NOT reach the desired goal within the allotted time."

Prompted by unfavorable reports of the last few days, many Liberty loan organizations throughout the country today adopted the slogan, "Double the Third," as a campaign cry.

37-45 AND 18 INDUCTION TO BE VOLUNTARY

Selective service registrants under the age of 19 and over the age of 37 will not receive final classifications under any circumstances except through competent orders calling for their voluntary induction, either to enter students' training camps or officers' schools.

This was the order received from Adjutant-General J. J. Borree by local draft boards today, to clear up confusion over questionnaires. Draft boards have been besieged for days by men over 37 who, not receiving questionnaires, have become nervous, or by applicants for officers' training schools seeking classifications before they seek commissions.

The rule for entering special schools is as follows:

Applicants apply to the school it is desired to enter. If the commanding officer of this school decides that he wants the applicant he will notify Washington, and Washington will issue a competent order to the local draft board, instructing induction of the man named. Otherwise draft boards can in no case give classification or induct men over 37 or under 19.

Men within these ages may have their classifications put ahead on request from any officer's school desiring to enroll them. This must, however, be in the hands of the draft boards before such special classification may be made.

Many Oakland men who have waived all exemption claims and offered themselves for Class 1A are to go into Class 2B instead, through the fact that they are married and their wives have not signed waivers of exemption claims. This automatically places the registrant in the lower classification.

No classification cards will be issued until the order numbers from the draft lottery arrive from Washington. They are expected daily.

Hindenberg Helping to Lick Hindenburg

ALBANY, Oct. 9.—Field Marshal Hindenburg may be fighting the Americans in Europe, but one Hindenburg in America is counteracting his efforts in this city.

Among the Liberty Bond subscribers in Albany yesterday appears the name of J. M Hindenberg, who paid $50 in cash for a bond to help lick his namesake overseas.

Hindenberg resents the fate which gave him the same name as the Prussian militarist, but declares that fact does not prevent him from being a loyal American.

Loan Workers to Hold Big Meeting

Active plans are being made for a big meeting of all the men Liberty loan workers of the home canvass department to be held in the Auditorium Friday night.

On that occasion, according to B. F. Shapro, chairman of the home canvass department of the Liberty loan committee, new badges of authority will be issued to all men workers. New membership cards showing the worker is a member of the national army of Liberty loan workers and precinct captains will be given a supply of 100 per cent home cards.

Every member of the home canvass department who attends the meeting has been asked to bring four or five new volunteer workers with him. Based upon this, Shapro states, that the attendance will possibly be close onto 8000 men at this meeting.

ATTRACTIVE CARD OF BOUTS FOR AUDITORIUM TOMORROW NIGHT

Main Event Brings Out Real Stars

By Eddie Murphy.

With the big scarcity of good main eventers around the bay section right now, mostly because the quarantine is holding some good boys under cover at both Goat and Mare Island, it looks like Tommy Simpson picked up the best main event possible to get when he signed "Battling" Vierra and Harry Pelsinger for tomorrow night's show at the auditorium. The fans of the bay cities want to see real action, and if there is a pair of boys that should give it to them, it should be Pelsinger and Vierra.

The promoters of tomorrow night's Shipbuilders' athletic carnival are showing a lot of courage in staging their show, and if it hadn't been for them the Eastbay fans would have to wait another week or possibly more before they would see some scraps. It is a cinch that had the San Francisco promoters thought of a Pelsinger-Vierra match, they would have soon grabbed it for they have been hitting some mighty tough nuts in seeking a first-class main event.

For their main event Friday night at Dreamland rink they have signed Soldier Gordon McKay of Camp Fremont to meet Knockout Kruvosky. McKay is a boy with a good reputation, but has not shown enough before the fans to let them know just how good he is. So it looks like Tommy Simpson made the best pick in the way of a main event when he grabbed Vierra and Pelsinger, for the fans know the kind of a fight that each lad will put up.

They figure to put up an interesting tangle, and the only thing that seems to be worrying the fans is, who will be the winner. It is a hard bout to figure when one considers the style of fighting the two feather-lightweights put up. Pelsinger is the cleverer boxer of the two and carries a good wallop, while Vierra is not as good a boxer, but is able to hit hard, and has a rushing style that gives a cleverer boy very little chance to show at his best. Whatever you may think about the result, well enough, but it is sure to be a classy contest.

EAGLES ON WARPATH.

Harry Eagles who meets Eddie Denny in one of the preliminaries, is going about telling his friends what he will do to Eddie Denny, the lad who beat him to a close decision a short time back. Eagles has been made the goat of a lot of boys about town, since Denny grabbed that decision and he will be out tomorrow night to get the laugh back at them. Eagles has a good chance to do so, as the last time he met Denny he was a substitute, and was not in the best of shape. Still the pair put up a great fight and should repeat, unless Eagles proves too good, since he has been able to train.

GOOD CARD ALL AROUND.

Boys that have not been having their names in big print on the posters are matched for tomorrow night, but just the same they are so evenly matched by Tommy Simpson, to give promise that the bouts will be good ones. George Drew, the colored boy of the Moore shipyard, showed last Friday night that he is a game lad, by taking a crack in the chin in the first round of his go with Jimmy Peters and being all but knocked out, and coming back to hold his own for the remainder of the bout. He will meet Tillie Herman.

Eddie Mahoney and Eddie Landon are down in a special event and there should be nothing slow about their bout. The other bouts will be Johnny Arrousey vs. Jimmy Marshall, Ted O'Hara vs. Baby Hines, and Young Vierra vs. Young McClure. Remember, the bouts are tomorrow night at the Auditorium and not tonight, as little Mary Pickford will be the attraction there tonight to help in boosting for the sale of Liberty Bonds. The first contest will be staged at 8:30 o'clock.

Three P. A. A. Swim Events Will Be at Neptune Sunday

For the first time in the history of swimming on the coast three P. A. A. championship events will be staged the same afternoon at Neptune Beach, next Sunday. The races are the 220 yards free style for girls; 200 yards breaststroke for girls and the men's junior outdoor 440 yards.

This is the greatest swimming carnival ever arranged in this part of the country and with the best swimmers taking part some of the existing records may be lowered.

The women's 220 was scheduled for last Sunday but only two entries, those of Miss Frances Cowells and Miss Maud Nickerson were received and the event was postponed. Now Terle Desch and Lillian Landers have sent in their entries and some of the Center club and Piedmont club girls will also be in the race before the end of the week. Miss Cowells has been making wonderful time in the sprints this summer and is favored to win the 220 but the other girls entered are game enough to take a chance against the champion. There are at least six girls who have not sent in their entries who would stand a fine show of finishing at least second but they seem to be afraid of Miss Cowells.

The men's junior 440 has attracted the best long-distance swimmers in the west and if the quarantine is removed from Mare Island and Goat Island before the day of the race Bartel, Cruse, Burns and other members of Uncle Sam's navy will be among the starters. To date the entries are: Roy Miller, Sacramento; August Brevick, Piedmont club; Win. Stout, Stockton; Jack Wolynice, Coast Guards.

The breast stroke for girls will fill up nicely during the week as several local mermaids make a specialty of this style of swimming.

J. Jordan Wins Alameda City Tennis Title

Miss Marjorie Thompson Regains Honors in the Ladies' Play

Finishing in spectacular form, the 6th annual Alameda championship tennis tourney, champions swept away all competition Sunday on the Washington park courts and will enjoy the distinction of being Alameda's very best racket wielders for at least a year.

Jim Jordan was the particular star of the day and his playing will be the talk of tennisdom for months to come. At least six of Alameda's four score of net men were counted upon to reach the finals and although Jordan's ability is well known, few wiseacres selected him to win the championship. He did more than win, meeting and defeating in regular order some of the strongest players entered. His opponents being Gordon Held, A. P. Keon, A. Young, F. H. Osborn and Clovey La Croix.

In semi-finals Jordan defeated Osborn, 7-5, 6-1, 6-4, while La Croix defeated Ovenberg, 6-3, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3. Then in finals Jordan defeated La Croix, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

Almost immediately after winning the singles title Jordan, with Osborn, his partner, began play in the doubles event against Young and La Croix, defeating them easily in three straight sets, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1, thus winning a place in the finals.

Although having played nine sets, Jordan was anxious to proceed in the doubles classic or finals against Cleve Steele and H. J. G. Harper, counting, of course, on valuable assistance by his partner, Frank H. Osborn, and he was not disappointed.

This was indeed a test of endurance, for each point was contested keenly. Five long sets, in which forty-nine games were played, and of these twenty-three went to deuce, including long rallys that brought the audience to a high pitch of excitement, with no dull moment intervened in which their interest might relax. The final score was 6-1, 5-7, 6-0, 6-8, 6-4. Thus Jordan and Osborn won the doubles championship of Alameda.

The contest between Miss Dorothy Foster and Miss Marjorie Thomson for ladies' championship resulted in victory for the latter after a splendid exhibition of good tennis on the part of each contestant.

The play was fast and furious and since these well-known maidens of the racquet have held the title on previous occasions interest in this event was exceedingly keen. Nor were the scores of well-wishing fans disappointed, for no better tennis has been played in Alameda for years. Each and every point was won only by extra effort on the part of one or the other of these experts, the final score being 7-5, 6-4, in favor of Miss Thomson, winner of the title and cup.

Tennis enthusiasts, including fans as well as players, are thankful indeed to the city administration, and especially to Mr. A. C. Benton, superintendent of parks and recreation, for splendid support of this tourney, and of a form of recreation so beneficial to young and old alike.

Here's His 'Godmother' Greeting Jim Dodson, Former U. C. Player, Now in Service

Hero of many a college battle, "Jimmy" Dodson, '15, University of California, trekked all the way from the naval camp at Balboa Park, San Diego, to Santa Barbara, where he is now in Uncle Sam's service, to visit his "god mother," Margarita Fisher, film star, on a recent furlough. In costume enacting her role of a ballyhoo dancer in a play now being filmed, when Dodson was announced, Miss Fisher tore right down to the garden to meet him. The little star is godmother of the championship naval baseball team at Balboa Park, of which Dodson is assistant manager. Art Schaefer and other big league stars are members. Dodson was captain of the championship University of California team which in 1914 made a playing tour through Japan and Hawaii.

Battling Nelson Is Seriously Ill With Spanish Influenza

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Battling Nelson, former lightweight champion of the world, is reported to be seriously ill of influenza at a hospital in this city. The "Durable Dane" said that his finances had been depleted through his property being "tied up."

"I would like a return of some of the money I loaned in the days of my prosperity," the fighter is quoted as saying.

"It may be unbelievable, but the total amount I now have outstanding in one way or another will run close to $250,000."

Football Men to Meet Tonight at Spalding's Fan Room

Football men, active and retired ones, will gather tonight at Spalding's fan room, and no less than 50 followers of the great game will be in attendance. Coaches, managers, officials and even the leading players have been invited to attend the meeting which will bring out representatives from Camp Fremont, Goat Island, Mare Island, the Presidio, St. Mary's college, University of California, and other places where the game of boot is popular.

The idea of the meeting is to bring the football men about the bay closer to each other, and also to give the rules a going over and appoint a set of officials from which a call may be made at any time they are needed. In other words an association for the football men will be formed and directors appointed, and it will be up to those directors to keep trace of the football activities about the bay.

The association will keep a list of names of all the coaches, managers and officials, along with their addresses, and when one might be needed he can be easily located. The officials will be advised just how they should force certain rules on the football field, and if any player suffers a penalty he should not blame the official, as he will be handling the game just as he was ordered by the association. Some of the men known in the football world that will be present will be Walter Christie, "Buck" Kearns of the Y. M. C. A., Herbe Hauser, Billy Hollander, "Andy" Smith, Pete Smith, Chester Grimmett, Church, Marks, William "Lonestar" Dietz, Wilson of St. Mary's College, and coaches of all the Eastbay high schools.

Pittsburg and Crockett to Meet Again?

Managers of Fast Clubs Must Keep Players in Shape in Some Way

By MAURY PESSANO.

Now that the series between the Pittsburg (Columbia Steel Co.) champions of the Central California league, and the C. L. Best Tractors, pennant winners of the Mission league, is over Bill Steen, manager of the Pittsburg club, will have his troubles in getting good semi-pro. clubs to Pittsburg to give his bunch of leaguers a good battle. If Bill has any intentions of playing the champions of the Shipbuilders' league he will have to get games so that his boys can get their usual workout every Sunday.

The same can be said for Tom Cahalan, manager of the Crockett Sugarites, for his team, like Steen's, will have trouble in getting games. So, if the fans around the bay read that these two clubs will play another series it will be no surprise, for Bill Steen wants revenge for the three games that he lost to Crockett about a month ago.

The fans that saw that last game out at San Leandro saw a battle, but not of the class of that last Crockett-Pittsburg series, and it's likely that the fans in Contra Costa that saw that series will see even better games, for Bill Steen and his Steel boys will be out for revenge, and Tom Cahalan's Sugarites will have the same confidence as last time. Both teams have the same players together right now, and before that Midwinter league will start its season both teams will have plenty of time to battle in another series.

Doc Silva who has been playing one of the outfields for the Steel boys was given his release by Steen, but with Bugs Reisigl out there in rightfield last Sunday Bill never missed Silva. Reisigl was one of the hitting stars of the day for the Steel boys, and he was next to Cardoza for the longest hitter of the day. He hit one over the leftfield fence that scored the last two runs of the game, and in the earlier part of the game he got an infield hit that scored another run. If Bugs can hit and play the outfield like he did at San Leandro, Steen will not need to worry about another outfielder. Doc is a good hitter and fielder but Bill has no room for him on the club right now.

Halton-Didiers Are Beaten in Close Game By Y. M. I., 2-1

The Halton & Didier team of Alameda suffered its fifth beating of the season when they lost to the Y. M. I. team of San Rafael by a score of 2 to 1. Fodder Dolan was in the box for the Alameda team and lost a tough luck game, allowing but six hits, fanning sixteen batters and not walking a man.

Not an earned run was made off him. Canty pitched for the visitors and allowed five hits, three of them coming in the seventh inning when the Halton & Didiers made their run. Eddie Shannahan played a snappy game at short for the Y. M. I. team, he handling twelve chances without a boot. The score:

Schedule For High School Football Games Is Arranged

With the date for the first game set over six weeks later than the regular opening date, the directors of the A. C. A. L. high school football league have announced their schedule for the fall season.

The first game will be staged at the Lincoln Park grounds on October 23, when the eleven from Fremont High School will meet the team from Alameda High. Fremont High will be at slight disadvantage, because this school has not had a coach until but two weeks ago, when the Oakland Board of Education secured Clarence H. Street, familiar to the Berkeley Y. M. C. A. fans, to coach the school which won the championship of the league last year. The fellows at both schools are coming out for practice regularly and the first game of the season is not doned to be a slow one.

There will be two leagues this year, one to play the American game, which will include the Berkeley Vocational and University High schools, and the other to play the rugby game, including Fremont, Oakland, Technical High and Alameda. The American league will play a double schedule, since it is so small.

Exact places for playing the games have not been decided, the three possible grounds being Lincoln Park in Alameda, the Bushrod Playgrounds, and the Bayview Playgrounds of Oakland.

There are six games to be played in the rugby schedule, as follows:

October 23.—Fremont High vs. Alameda High.

October 24.—Oakland High vs. Technical High.

October 30.—Fremont High vs. Technical High.

October 31.—Oakland High vs. Alameda High.

November 6.—Technical High vs. Alameda High.

November 7.—Fremont High vs. Oakland High.

The American schedule commences two days later than the rugby, with the game between Berkeley and Vocational. The American schedule is as follows:

October 25.—Berkeley vs. Vocational.

November 1.—University vs. Berkeley.

November 8.—Vocational vs. University.

November 15.—Vocational vs. Berkeley.

November 22.—Berkeley vs. University.

November 28 or 29 (undecided).—Vocational vs. University.

VAMPIRES TRIM ELKS.

For seven innings, out at Bushrod Sunday, the Oakland Elks and Vampires battled, with the score tied two all, but in the eighth the fans saw some heavy hitting by the Vampires which sent Fuller into the box for the Elks, taking the place of Schammel, who had done well up to this time.

The inning started with Brooks single, and when Chalmers sacrificed, he went from first to third. Croter hit one to left which scored the Vamps' third-sacker and Reppy hit a home run, which clinched the game. Du Fosse, Gallagher and Eby all got nice bingles in this frame and when the dust cleared away the scorer had chalked up five runs. The final score was 12 to 4. Score:

ALL-STARS MEET DEFEAT.

After winning eight straight, the C. L. Best All-Stars met defeat at the hands of the San Leandro Merchants by a score of 2 to 1. Lewis was the hitting star of the game, J. Vargas pitched for the Merchants, fanning ten men, while Frank struck out nine. Score:

Of course, it's wasted energy to speak of it, but why have the big league magnates allowed the world series players to break the national commission ruling against barnstorming trips? Teams made up of the stars are still playing games.

OH! FOR RELIEF FROM FLAMING SKIN DISEASES

Terrifying Itching Causes Continuous Torture

Do you sometimes feel like you will scream if you do not get relief from the tormenting and terrifying itching and irritating burning that makes you feel like your very skin is ablaze?

Possibly your disorder has not reached the torturing stage as yet, but there are thousands of victims of skin diseases that know too well the well nigh unendurable pain that comes from eruptions, irritations, pimples, boils, ulcers, eczema, psoryasis, carbuncles and the numerous other forms of torment that attack the delicate tissues of the skin.

The only proper method of treatment for any disease, is a remedy that will reach its source, that will remove its cause, and not simply paliate its symptoms. Every form of skin ailment comes from a colony of millions upon millions of tiny disease germs that infest the blood. Naturally, then, these germs must be eradicated from the blood before a cure can be expected.

You know well enough that you cannot reach the blood by applying lotions, ointments, salves, washes and, other local applications to the surface of the skin. So when you use such treatment for your tormenting skin diseases, the most you can expect is a temporary discontinuance of the pain, which promptly returns, and keeps you constantly applying the local remedies, making no progress whatever toward permanently ridding yourself of the disease.

Why longer continue such makeshift treatment? Go to your drugstore today and get a bottle of S. S. S., the reliable blood purifier, and begin a treatment that will prove satisfactory, as it has to thousands of others who were afflicted just as you have been. S. S. S. has been used for more than fifty years, so that you are not experimenting when you take it. It will promptly cleanse the blood of every impurity, and rout out entirely every trace of disease germs.

Don't continue to suffer, but begin taking S. S. S. today, and write our head physician, who will give you full instructions about your own case. Address Medical Director, 404 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—Advertisement.

BUSINESS PROPERTY FOR SALE

ALAMEDA store and dwelling, rented; A1 location. Owner, Box 16688, Trib.

NEVER CAN BE DUPLICATED.
This should interest any man with a drop of speculative blood in him. A magnificent piece of business property in the very heart of city, where values are held at $250 per foot, for only $110 per foot. At most conservative estimate it's worth $250 per foot, and when improved will pay good interest on this value. Lot 66-foot frontage and contains two-story 7-room house; property is easily worth $16,000. Must sell at once, and price today is only $6600. Don't let this get away.

Peace Rumors Hit Street Hard
Recessions Range to Ten Points

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Peace rumors effected further reversals of two to ten points in speculative stocks today, investment issues, especially rails and utilities, making substantial gains.

Recessions extending from large fractions to a point by several of the leaders were the only conspicuous exceptions to the general firmness in the first half hour. Variable strength was displayed by oils and utilities, especially the telephone and the telegraph issues, and some of the steels. Latest war developments induced moderate covering of short contracts, but dealings were comparatively light.

Bulletins announcing further successes of the allied armies failed to stimulate the war group, but special stocks made greater gains. Petroleums enhanced initial gains and rails also responded to a better inquiry. Liberty bonds were lower, the 3½s falling slightly under par.

War shares underwent further severe depreciation during midday on reports that Austria would soon announce acceptances of the entente's peace terms. Reactions of two to six points ruled among those stocks, but rails and other standard shares were relatively steady. Rails and oils led the rally of the last hour, war shares recovering 1 to 2 points. The closing was irregular.

Liberty bond prices: 3½, 99.96. First convertible 4s, 97.52; second 4s, 96.54. First convertible 4¼, 97.58; second convertible 4¼, 96.54; third 4¼, 98.66.

THE STRUGGLE

By Zoe Beckley

BUSINESS-PLEASURE.

With his mind set free of depressing worry about money, Ferrol's thoughts rose into the freer air of new ideas. When "income was a short jump ahead of outgo," as he put it, Ferrol had to stick to conservative methods of selling. He came to his buyers in their business hours and took his chances with his rivals. Now, with Bonanza Copper steadily rising, and his income with it, Ferrol adopted the methods of a more high-flying selling technique.

He came to the buyer for one of the biggest department stores not in the buying hours, but just before lunch time.

"Look here, Mr. Warren," he said, genially. "Let's combine business with pleasure. It'll be a pleasure to me to have you my guest for lunch. And what I'll talk about will be business. You can listen just as intelligently about my new books over a steak as in your office. And both of us will be saving good business time."

It was no new proposition to Mr. Warren. Other men had proposed it to him. Only they were not the steady-going kind Ferrol was. Usually he frowned on this effort to bribe his judgment as he saw it. But Ferrol ingeniously won him over to the idea.

"You're thinking, Mr. Warren, that I'm trying to bribe you with a lunch," Ferrol said. "Well, it's precisely what I should like to do. But I have no such hope. I'm afraid you'll judge my wares just as strictly as though I'd proven a poor hunch. The most I hope is to get ten minutes more of your listening time than I could get otherwise."

Ferrol's openness disarmed Mr. Warren's suspicion, and the costly, excellent treat he provided warmed his business judgment to a kindlier view of Ferrol's wares. Ferrol's suit of "King's Own" cloth had also had its modicum of effect, as Ferrol had foreseen. Warren noted it, and a tiny thought-seed dropped into the topsoil of his subconscious judgment, where it took root.

"Ferrol must be making good with other buyers if he can afford such expensive clothes. I guess he is delivering the goods these days—good goods!"

Ferrol's frequent dreams and longings for excellent food, drink and tobacco now came in good stead. He took the buyer to one of the best restaurants in the city and ordered like a gourmet. He knew the bill would be a staggerer—and it was. But so was the bill of goods which Warren ordered under the influence of excellent filet mignon, fresh mushrooms, a taste of wine and the best of Havana cigars.

Ferrol came back with an order which, combined with the dinner he had enjoyed in common with the buyer, made him feel that hard times were over. A new regime had set in. On the face of it, his idea of lavish treating had justified his hopes tenfold.

He made his new method a permanent policy in selling. His best working time became the luncheon hour. It cost him a disturbing amount of money. But some of it came back in increased sales from susceptible buyers. Most of it came, however, from the rising of Bonanza Copper. He had not yet drawn on it, but it was there just as though it were in the bank to his credit. Ferrol knew.

In the shortest time one can form a habit Ferrol's new free-hand policy of combining business with pleasure at lunch time took hold of him with the strength of a powerful appetite. Commissions did not come in fast enough to foot the bills. He began to draw on what was left of his little bank reserve.

CHAPTER XI

People often say, "Oh, if I were only rich, how I would pour out money! Help the poor; educate the talented; give everybody a good time—and, wow! what a good time I'd have myself!" Especially if they are young they talk that way. Then, after they have made their fortune, you are amazed, and disappointed, that no stream of generosity flows from their coffers. Money has changed them. Having come gradually and with ever-increasing expenditures, wealth brings no reaction of spending. The more they have the more they want. The more they earn the more they hoard. The joy of leisurely living is gone. The thrill of spending has died with the dreams of youth. But with "easy money" it is different. Sudden wealth sometimes works a magic change in a man. It electrifies, intoxicates.

While John Ferrol's winnings in "the market" were of a smallness to make an experienced speculator laugh, they were big to him. They lifted him from the level of a worried, expense-ridden "husband" to that of a light-hearted, ambitious "man."

All day as he went about his work John Ferrol was dreaming his dreams. He had his vanities like other men, but his thoughts were not wholly selfish.

"Edith's a dear girl," he reflected, "and a fine mother! Come to think of it, Ede has never let herself get seedy looking like some married women I know. She's kept her figure and stayed neat and pretty, no matter how we've had to pinch and scrape . . . . Guess I've been a little hard on Ede sometimes about money matters. . . . Maybe I ought to have given her that allowance she's always yapping about. Well—we'll see; we'll see."

Then he would buy a fresh edition of some evening paper and scan the curb market quotations. Bonanza Copper was still hovering around the fives and five-and-an-eighths. He had bought at two, and had more than doubled his money already. Every envelope and scrap of paper in his pockets was covered with figures. He grew expert in mental arithmetic, often doing feats of multiplication with one-half his brain while selling sets of Ibsen to some department store buyer with the other. Yes—Ferrol was a different man from the chap of a few weeks back.

Thus he pleasantly surprised his wife by making no protest at her carnival of buying. He pretended to have a heart seizure at sight of her boxes and bundles, but only staggered as far as where Edith stood biting her lip nervously and supplicating the gods of luck.

"Glad you did it, hon!" he cried gayly. "Indulging in a little buying myself. Got some mechanics building stuff for Jack to play with and a 'jool' for our daughter! Virginia, kiddie, come hither and see what your millionaire father lays at your feet. Like it, hey? Well, I took a chance that you'd be woman enough to want a gold gewgaw." And Ferrol clasped a tiny chain with a fat little pendant heart about his prancing offspring's neck.

Into his wife's hand he slipped a yellow bank note, closing her fingers over it with a kiss. Edith hurried into the kitchen to hide her tears in the genial steam of dinner! The bill she tucked into her apron pocket was a fifty, crisp and clean.

Dinner was a merry meal that night. Eight-year-old daughter scarcely ate for excitement over her first bit of "ju-lery—real, too, mother; it's got a mark on it that says 18K!" Dumpy Jack Junior wiggled out of his high-chair three times to peer at the box of steel building units, which made him feel at least as important as the policeman and almost on a par with his adored friend the fireman in the next block, who drove the shrieking red demon carrying the hook-and ladder.

"Didn't you buy anything for yourself, dear?" asked Edith, who, in the unwonted merriment had not noted Ferrol's new raiment. A self-conscious smile and a swelling of John's chest drew her attention to the expensive new clothes—the "King's Own" cloth he had been unable to resist. A woman is never as unversed in men's garments as men are in women's. Edith sensed its reckless costliness. Her own buying had been generous, but not ostentatious. It scarcely needed Ferrol's whispered "hundred bucks—like it?" to jar her mind into a sudden fear that somehow something was wrong, that they were going too far.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—At the opening of the cotton market today prices were steady at a net advance of five to twenty points. Liverpool and New Orleans bought and there was a moderate demand for both Northern and Southern trade interests. Prices soon began to rence and by the end of the first fifteen minutes all the gains were lost and prices were below last night's close.

Near the close covering became more active and the market was finally steady at a net decline of 22 to 61 points.

SUNDAY'S THE DAY! SEND SMILE "OVER THERE"

FILM WILL CHEER BOYS IN FRANCE

Preparations are being rapidly completed for Sunday, "Smile Day," when, at Lakeside Park, if the weather is fine, or at the Auditorium, if it rains, The TRIBUNE is to take its great film of the wives, parents, sweetheart and babies of the soldiers "over there," to be sent to the trenches to cheer the Oakland boys.

Local organizations are co-operating with the newspaper in the work, and the details of the big task are already well in hand. The people to pose will be lined in a parade, flags waving, banners facing the camera, and will, under the direction of expert motion picture producers, be marched past the camera, with one instruction—"smile right into the lens."

The pictures, after being shown in Oakland for a few days, that people may see themselves as the camera saw them, will be sent at once to France.

It is a splendid opportunity for the relative of any boy in the great war to cheer him. Imagine yourself, a soldier going to a trench theater to see your mother, or sweetheart—or perhaps the wife you left behind or the baby who arrived after you left for France! It would do you more good to see 'em smile than anything France could offer—wouldn't it?

That's what The TRIBUNE and the people of the Eastbay cities are going to do for our boys. There's nothing for you to do—except come to Lakeside Park—and smile.

The details of the line of march and location of the camera are now being worked out by picture producers who have come to Oakland to stage this remarkable piece of film work. Their instructions as to place and details will be issued in the next two days, after they have laid out the ground.

Relatives of soldiers are advised to prepare banners—something the boy whose eye they wish to catch cannot fail to notice—his name or something like that—to help catch his eye. Service flags—and plenty of Stars and Stripes, too, are suggested by the producers.

PARENTS! WIVES! SWEETHEARTS!

HELP MAKE "CELLULOID BULLET"

Got that smile ready?

You've got to send it over, to, that boy in France, Sunday!

Only three days to prepare for the big event!

On Sunday afternoon The TRIBUNE is going to take "movies" in Lakeside Park, of the mothers, wives, children and sweethearts of the Eastbay boys "over there." The films will be sent direct to France, that the boys may see their people, in their own home city—smiling.

Everyone who has a loved one across the sea is invited to help make it the greatest film ever taken. It'll be like a bullet for the kaiser, too—for won't those boys just FIGHT after they SEE their own people, smiling at them from the picture screen. The pictures have done lots of big things—but nothing bigger than this—to transport wives, daughters, sweethearts and kiddies "Across the pond" to smile at America's defenders.

You'll be there to smile—won't you?

The great film will be taken at 1 o'clock at Lakeside Park, if the weather is fine. If it rains the Auditorium will be used. Committees will be on hand to arrange the parade of the people past the cameras, and everyone is asked to bear service flag or banner by which their loved ones may readily "spot" them when the picture's flashed on the screen over there in one of these war-theaters.

Arrangements will be made to show the films here before they're sent across, the people in them may see themselves and be sure that their boys will find them.

SAVINGS STAMP GAMES STOPPED BY FIRE CHIEF

The games of chance being conducted by firemen of the Oakland department for the sale of War Savings Stamps were stopped today by order of Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead as a result of complaints filed by the First Methodist Church and the W. C. T. U.

The men of the department, who had been giving their time in behalf of the War Savings Stamp campaign, were disappointed that they were not permitted to continue, as they had raised $50,000 in ten days and hoped to be instrumental in putting Oakland "over the top" within the time limit. They are considering placing a petition before the city council that the organizations making the protest be now asked to undertake the work of completing the Oakland War Savings Stamp quota.

The men of No. 1 fire station at the City Hall added $12,706.63 to the quota from the table conducted in Fourteenth street.

TWO OAKLAND BOYS AMONG CASUALTIES

Although George Kaphan has received an official telegram from the War Department reporting his son, Jerome Kaphan, as killed in action on September 2, he admits doubt concerning the fate of the boy. He believes that later reports will find the Oakland soldier still alive. Kaphan, who is 22 years old, was drafted on November 7, arriving in France on New Year's day. He has been in the front lines for six months. A letter dated August 19 was received by the Kaphan family, who reside at 563 Twenty-fourth street, from the soldier on Monday.

BARNEY RECOVERS

Corporal Clifford Barney, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Barney, 4826 Webster street, whose name appeared in today's casualty list among those severely wounded, has rapidly recovered and when the latest letter was received from him he was being outfitted to return to the front. Barney, who is 24 years old, was formerly connected with the transportation department of the Southern Pacific. He was drafted in September of last year, sailing for France in November. Attached to headquarters when re-enforcements were called for, he was sent into the field on July 20 to July 23. The enemy was encountered in a terrific engagement in the open. The men went through gas and a shower of splinters from the 8-inch shells. On July 23, Barney's eyes became infected, and he was removed to the field hospital, later being sent to Paris for recuperation. He is fully restored.

ALLISON REID WOUNDED

Allison W. Reid, 1267 Washington avenue, San Leandro, was wounded in the back from a shower of shrapnel, according to a letter received by his mother, Mrs. J. P. Rose. Reid entered the army in September of last year as an alternate. He was so anxious to get into the fight that he reported at Camp Lewis before his call, where he trained for two weeks, going immediately overseas. He is back again in the field with his own company.

Other Californians named in today's casualty list are:

Wounded severely—Francis B. McCollum, Pomona; Speros J. Paviatos, Vallejo; Theodore Jones, Los Angeles; Alvin Teel, Santa Ana; Charles Hailer, San Francisco.

Missing in action—James McEntee, San Jose.

Second Lieutenant Albert C. Simonds, whose nearest of kin is A. G. Simonds of Los Angeles, was killed in action, according to the marine corps casualty list.

Burglar Runs When Woman Screams

A burglar who robbed the home of Edward Crispen, 1716 San Pablo avenue, awakened Mrs. Crispen shortly after 3 o'clock this morning as he was leaving the room, when he bumped into a chair. Mrs. Crispen screamed and the man fled, making good his escape. The police were summoned and searched the neighborhood, but found no trace of the intruder. A watch and $2.50 were stolen.

Other reports of thefts were as follows:

Mrs. Dora Rushing, 1201 Seventh street, home entered and jewelry stolen.

James Sorenson, 706 Broadway, room entered through window, $7 stolen.

Gus Swanson of Richmond reported that he had been robbed of $50 and a $50 Liberty bond.

Frank Bremollo, 356 Seventh street, reported he was cheated by a short-change deal, losing $9.

EXAMINE MEN SOON

RICHMOND, Oct. 9.—Examination of men under the new registration will commence next week. Nothing has been received by the local board to indicate that they will be sent for some time yet.

Loyalty of Brewers Only in Balance

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The Senate's probe of the activities of the organized brewers of the United States will be confined almost entirely to charges involving their loyalty, it was indicated by Senator Overman, chairman of the investigating committee, today.

Maura Forms New Cabinet for Spain

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Oct. 9 (By The Associated Press)—Antonio Maura, the resignation of whose cabinet reported, has formed a new government, in which he takes the post of public instruction, which was vacated by Santiago Alba, who is the only minister superseded in the new cabinet. Premier Maura's enthusiastic attitude gives the impression that a crisis has been averted.

Robbers Mail Back Stolen Draft Card

ALAMEDA, Oct. 9.—Lawrence E. Whitney of 2439 Blanding avenue, who recently reported to the police that two men had held him up and robbed him of several dollars, his registration card and other belongings, received back this morning his stolen registration card. The missing certificate was mailed to Whitney, his address being given on the card.

No Alien Fires This Year, Says Official

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Thus far this year there has not been in this country "one single fire or explosion which could be traced to enemy aliens," John Lord O'Brien, special assistant attorney general of the United States, assigned to the work, declared in an address before the New York Bar Association. He said this opinion was shared by the Department of Justice and the National Fire Insurance Association.

Steamer Is Sent to Rescue of Newburg

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—The steamer Brunswick, Captain Olsen, left a Pacific port this morning with a full complement of wrecking gear to go to the aid of the Richardson line steamer Newberg which went ashore off the Pacific coast for the second time yesterday shortly after 6 o'clock. The crew of ten on the Newberg are in some danger, according to reports, but unless the wind shifts can be taken off without fatalities. The Newberg is in charge of Captain Mattson.

HIS LIBERTY BOND

PAID FOR IN FULL

—Reproduced from the New York Herald.

If this were your boy would you be influenced by any ridiculous German propaganda peace talk?

NO—YOU BET YOU WOULDN'T. You'd buy the limit—you'd invest your future in bonds and pay one-tenth down and one-tenth a month (anyone can stand that). Then you'd go out and see that all your friends and neighbors did the same.

There can be no lasting peace except an Allied made peace—remember this when your neighborhood bond salesmen call back on you for an additional bond investment.

Wonderful! The DUO ART

So say scores and scores who have heard this marvelous instrument. It is the very latest in Player Pianos, the product of the Aeolian Company, originators of the Pianola. The Duo Art begins where the other Players left off—it is far superior in every particular—

1—Tone Gradation—having practically twice the number of Tone Gradations of any other player instrument, producing perfect "tone color," impossible in any other Player.

2—"Time" Control—which not only regulates the time but instructs and guides the one playing, assuring the correct interpretation of the selection.

3—Accenting the Solo—bringing out perfectly the solo (or melody), but at the same time controlling the accompaniment so that it properly supports the Solo.

4—No Pedaling—the air chamber is constantly supplied without foot pedaling, permitting the one playing to devote his entire attention to interpretation, thus making the instrument a pleasure instead of a labor.

5—Simplicity of Construction—no complicated or troublesome mechanisms, as in other Players.

6—Reproducing the Actual Playing of the Great Pianists—with the wonderful Duo Art Rolls, as perfectly as the Victrola reproduces the voices of Caruso and other great artists.

Remember—it can be played by hand from the keyboard in the usual manner; it plays any 88-note music roll; it reproduces the actual performance of the great pianists. There are so many interesting things about the Duo Art—we invite you to come in to see and hear this wonderful musical instrument.

CAN NOW EAT AND SLEEP IN COMFORT.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well." For sale by Osgood Bros.' Drug Stores.—Advertisement.
